Dear Mr. Meredith.

God bless you and uphold your abundant strength and courage and grant you also some measure of serenity.

There are several aspects of the U.S. that we Americans living abroad cannot be proud of, but our Supreme Court decisions and the brave, dignified striving of American Negroes to reach a worthy goal deserve unqualified praise and admiration. You are certainly the heroes of the mid-20th century - with sincere gratitude -
