Dear Mr. Meredith,

You must be going through hell, and I suppose there are times when you wish you'd never gotten in this situation in the first place.

I assure you that at least one white Southerner, me, understands, sympathizes, and wishes you well. It stands to reason, too, that for every person who takes the time to write there must surely be thousands more who feel the same way but who just don't get around to doing anything about it.

I hope this note brings you a moment of comfort.

Sincerely,

Booton Hernd
