October 1962

Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Attorney General,

Please forgive me for taking the liberty of using you or your office for the purpose of transmitting a letter enclosed to Mr. Meredith. As I do not know whether he will be given the usual courtesies, such as delivery of his mail, I hope that someone will be kind enough to pass on my note expressing admiration and support. It may not mean much to him to hear from an unknown white woman, but if it means anything at all it will have been worthwhile for me to write.

Having worked for the Government (State Dept.) I regize that this letter is not likely to reach your desk.
Nevertheless I would like to thank you and the President for the dignified way in which you have handled Mr. Meredith's case. I cannot imagine any better methods than those you used, or a finer speech than the President's.

With many thanks to whom may pass on the record letter to Mr. Meredith, I am

Sincerely yours,
(Mrs.) Helen Bradley Putnam
