

University of Mississippi
eGrove

Correspondence: Pro-integration

James Meredith Collection

10-3-1962

Dorothy Thornton to Mr. Meredith (3 October 1962)

Dorothy Thornton

Follow this and additional works at: https://egrove.olemiss.edu/mercorr_pro

Recommended Citation

Thornton, Dorothy, "Dorothy Thornton to Mr. Meredith (3 October 1962)" (1962). Correspondence: Pro-integration. 151. https://egrove.olemiss.edu/mercorr_pro/151

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the James Meredith Collection at eGrove. It has been accepted for inclusion in Correspondence: Pro-integration by an authorized administrator of eGrove. For more information, please contact egrove@olemiss.edu.

no Return
Address

Oct 3, 1962

Dear Mr. Meredith:

In case you should be feeling that the world is a lonely place for a brave man, I am writing to salute your determination, your dignity, and your moral courage in the face of horrifying circumstances. I am proud to be a fellow-citizen to you. Regardless of what the governor of Mississippi may feel, any American, black or white, who takes a stand for freedom strikes a blow for all Americans, black or white. If you have doubted that there are any white Americans who believe this, please don't doubt it any longer, because it is so.

Sincerely,

Dorothy Thornton

Copyrighted