Dear Sir,

may we, as an organisation pledged since its foundation to combatting any religious and racial intolerance and discrimination submit to you our full sympathy for your courageous behaviour;

Even if you have been persecuted and threatened by incorrigible race fanatics, you will have the certainty, that millions of people all over the world are wishing you the best in your fight for the recognition of equality of all human beings and are united with you in your actions.

For this fight is not a question of one person alone, but is a contribution in the worldwide struggle between those who wish to maintain and immortalise the old prejudices, and those, who, carried by the spirit of humanity, endeavour to see equality of all human beings, as pointed out in the Charter of the Human Rights, put into practice everywhere.

Yours with best wishes ,

H. H. Flegaric

Dear Mr. Flegaric:

Please extend my thanks to the members of your organization for their good wishes.

The kind thoughts expressed by them and many others during this period will always be remembered.

Sincerely yours,
