11th October, 1962.

Mr. James Meredith,
University.,
MISSISSIPPI. U. S. A.

Dear Mr. Meredith,

Your determination in securing entry to the University has won my admiration, and I am certain the admiration of the majority of Australians.

This letter is directed to you to offer congratulations on your success on obtaining entry, and to wish you the very best of good fortune in the future.

I sincerely trust that your people will appreciate the tremendous effort you have made on their behalf, and I trust further it will give many courage to emulate your deeds.

Sincerely,

George Beard
