Dear Mr. James Meredith!

We are an Norwegian family, and we've just heard through the radio that you succeeded in being matriculated by the Oxford University in Mississippi.

We've been following the event and in a small country where that kind of events doesn't exist are we terrified at the American South States reasoning!

The family do admire your braveness and solid conviction in accomplishing this important case.

We want to wish you all the best, and do hope your further studies will take place in peace.

Send all good wishes to your wife and your little son with love from the family Ødegaard, Storgt. 81, Lillehammer
