Dear Mr. Meredith,

I have been following with disgust and disappointment the disgraceful events in which you were involved as a colored man.

I very much appreciate and admire your tenacity and courage vis-a-vis a cowardly mob of so-called American democrats whose behaviour is below contempt.

You may rest assured that you have tens of thousands intelligent and highly educated European friends who do not believe in color bar and who most emphatically detest the way colored American citizens many of whom were good enough to fight and die for American democracy, are being treated in "God's own country".

Do not relax and carry on your fight until complete victory is yours!

With every good wish and kind regards

Yours

R. Neuberger
