Dear James Meredith;
I hope that you are feeling fine.
I like your good spirit so keep it up.

Most of the United States I'm sure are on your side. At least most of Los Angeles, my friends, my relatives and my family are.

I hope very much that you enter the University of Mississippi.

No matter what color anybody is, we are all human beings. It doesn't matter what race, creed, or nationality we follow we are all Americans in the United States of America. I'd wish the people of Mississippi and all over that all against you and us will realize it.

I am 14 years old, in the B-9 and I am an Mexican-American girl.
So I wish you lots of luck and keep up your faith + spirit.

may God Bless you always.

Your friends always
Los Angeles (I'm sure)
Cecilia Sanchez.

P.S. This letter isn't much but I really mean what I said.
So long. Good luck.
