Dear Mr. Meredith:

This is just a note to tell you that I deplore what is happening to you, and that I respect your courage more than I can say. I, and many I know, are outraged and frustrated about the events in Mississippi. Sacrifices such as yours will, I trust, eventually bring sanity and decency to the South.

Don't think that you are alone in your fight. There are many people you will not hear from who stand behind you 100%.

Good luck to you.

Sincerely yours,

Julia B. Mozley

Dear Miss Mozley:

Allow me to thank you for your contribution and good wishes which is greatly appreciated. Due to the volume of mail we have just gotten around to answering your letter of October 1st.

The kind thoughts expressed by you and many others at this time will always be remembered.

Sincerely yours,

Mozley
