Jim,

There are many whites like us who are behind you 100% in your determined efforts to enroll at Miss. Univ. Believe you me, you must have been a very courageous pilot in the Korean War, for you truly are a courageous man, now, in this war against segregation. Never forget, there is always someone to break down a barrier ^{to} to begin a crusade before others like him can succeed. Well, sir, you must have been selected by God to be first, negro enrollee at Ole Miss. You know, Jackie Robinson was first negro in major league baseball before others could follow. Well, feel honored + privileged to be so chosen by God. And I'm sure that He will be ever at your side to help you win over Gov. Barnett, so that no blood will be shed. Anyway I'll help by saying 3 (inside)

novenas for Mr.
Barnett. And I &
3 teenaged girls wrote
Barnett, condemning his tactics. Two girls 14 & 14, are negroes, & one 16 in Jan. next, is white. Hell be angry
but he may be softened by the letters. If he isn't softened, hell be cited for contempt of court, & be required to pay a $10,000 per day fine until he allows you to enroll.

Jim, sticks in there!
