Dear Brother James Meredith,

There are many, many in this country who wish to tell you how much they wish to side with you and back you in your brave struggle. The time draws near when all human beings, black, white, yellow; red will never forget that before God we are all but God's children. You are doing a wonderful work for the reconciliation of races and for the equality of human beings. Great people have been fighting the fight for this noble aim, Christ, Buddha, Gandhi and so many whose names are not recorded.

Brother, the hearts of millions are with you right now; you are doing America the best service a man could possibly do; you are helping your great country to become a true leader of the nations of this earth.

There is bigotry and narrow-mindedness towards people of different skin colour in this country just as well as in your State of Mississippi; a great many people were persecuted in my native country, Germany, because they were Jews. We have got to overcome it; we must become worthy of Christ's great message; the teachings of racial superiority are the work of Satan himself. You are fighting Satan, go on, Brother, millions are with you praying and hoping that you will be strong enough to see it through.

Let me tell you that I am tremendously proud of you: you have shown me that it is worth while to be a human being. Your's is the Good and Right Cause.

With greatest respect,

Yours, Nicholas
