Dear Mr. Meredith:

My family joins me in offering you our most sincere congratulations. The step you are taking is an important and necessary one and we greatly admire your courage and faith in taking it. Our thanks to you for taking such a decisive lead in what is all America's struggle for equality.

I wish there was more we could do to help your immediate situation than just send you our support on paper. Best wishes, and know that you, on the side of justice, have widespread support.

Sincerely and respectfully,
Miss Sydney Akerstein
