Mr. James H. Meredith

Oxford, Mississippi

Dear Mr. Meredith,

I have been a witness to your ordeal
by way of radio, newspapers and television.

You have my highest admiration for your courage in this historic battle for acceptance as an individual, to be judged and recognized in your own right.

Prejudice is ugly. I hope that in time people will learn to open their minds as well as their eyes. Please do not be discouraged.

Best wishes in your endeavor.
Marjorie Wright.
