PASADENA, CALIFORNIA

October 1, 1962

Dear Mr. Meredith,

The courage and dignity with which you have carried yourself through these tragic days is commendable. Your bravery is the kind shown by our heroes in the past and has furthered the cause for which all decent people strive — racial equality. May God bless you and all others who are facing danger in order to further Democracy here and throughout the world.

Sincerely,

Barbara Lathrop (whose skin happens to be white)
