Dear Mr. James Meredith.

I'll just write you to tell you not to give in. The affair in Oxford has been on the front of the newspapers in Scandinavia and all over Europe I guess.

You shall know that you don't stand alone. I'm a Christian and I know that God will help you because you're right.

I know you'll get a lonely and hard time at the university among the other students but please don't give in.

I'm happy that there was someone who dared defy the unjust tradition.

May God bless you and give you courage.

Your friend

Karen Larsen.
