Mr James H. Meredith,

Wish to let you know that your fight for citizen rights is admired. Must be quite a hell to go through. In my opinion all Americans have a right to share governmental facilities as long as they behave themselves.

Since I am a religious man, I would like to mention:

1. That Christ's religion has imperfect and inconsistent adherents. We all have "blind spots".

2. If we can forgive as Christ did, we shall achieve the supreme success.

3. The fight for principle, for truth, is also Christ-like. We must continue, not in anger at people but only at untruth.

It seems you have conducted yourself admirably in this situation so far. It will be an inspiration to others.

The enclosed envelope is self-addressed. A few lines with your autograph would be highly appreciated.

Thanking you,

Claus H. Geisel
