Dear Mr. Meredith:

We have been following the course of events in Mississippi through the radio, television and newspaper services.

Though we are white skinned and members of a predominantly white society, we nevertheless admire you for the courage you have displayed in an apparently successful attempt to assert your rights.

We sincerely hope that the crisis will abate and that you will be allowed to continue your education unhindered by fanatics and rabble-rousers and that your efforts will open the door to increased opportunities for members of your race.

Again, our heartfelt praise for the way you have conducted yourself!

Be careful!!

Sincerely,

Cyrus Mulford
