April 27, 1978

Dear Senator Eastland:

Little can be added to the great tributes that were paid to Hubert Humphrey during his lifetime and after his death. However, we believe that the May issue of Reader's Digest, a copy of which is enclosed, reveals some memorable insights into Mr. Humphrey's human qualities.

We hope that this issue of the Digest may find a place in your library, and that it will help to remind you of a well-loved and much admired colleague.

With every good wish.

Sincerely,

John M. Allen
