PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION ON CAMPUS UNREST

1717 H STREET, N.W.
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20006

July 13, 1970

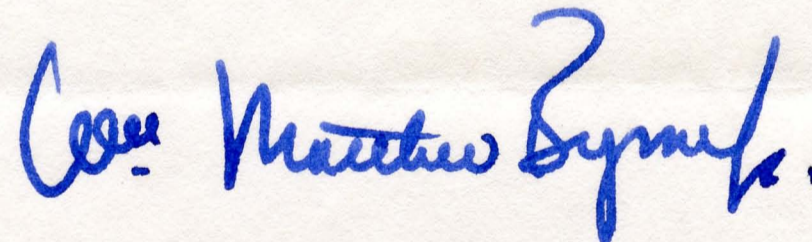

Honorable James O. Eastland
United States Senate
Room 2241
New Senate Office Building
Washington, D. C.

Dear Senator Eastland:

Governor William W. Scranton, Chairman of the President's Commission on Campus Unrest, has requested me to advise you that the Commission will convene public hearings on July 15, 16 and 17, 1970. The hearings will be held Wednesday, Thursday afternoon and Friday morning at Room 1202 New Senate Office Building. Twelve persons have been invited to testify including, among others, students, college presidents and law enforcement officers. Senators Hugh Scott and Edward M. Kennedy will also testify. The schedule of appearances is shown on the attached list.

The Commission is planning to hold at least one additional day of public hearings in Washington later this month. We shall keep you informed of the hearing schedule.

Sincerely,
