THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

COLL

March 5, 1973

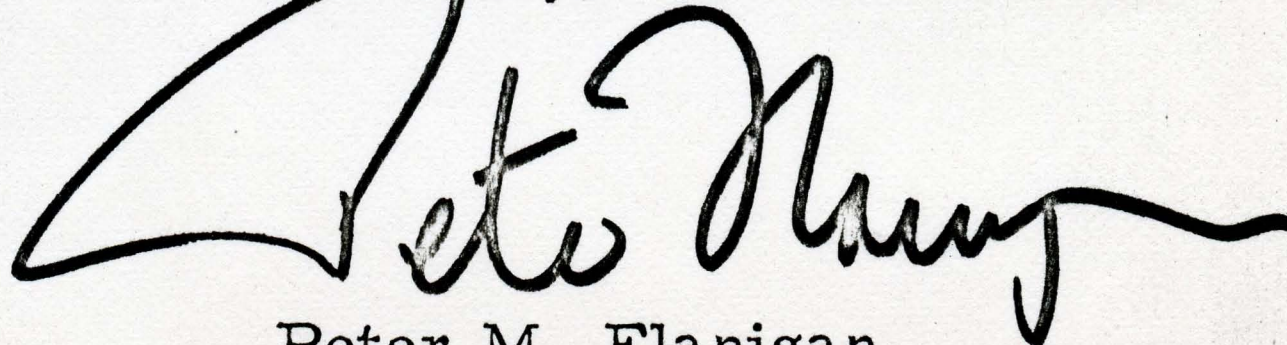

Dear Mr. Chairman:

Wally Johnson has passed along to me your recent letter enclosing a letter from Mr. Jodie R. Johnson concerning the export of logs to Japan and the impact on the domestic lumber industry.

I want to assure you that this matter is receiving priority attention within the Commerce Department, the Cost of Living Council, the Council of Economic Advisers and my office. The rise in wood product prices is a matter under active review in the White House, and we are considering what action may be necessary.

With warm regards,

Sincerely,

Peter M. Flanigan
Assistant to the President for International Economic Affairs

Honorable James O. Eastland

Honorable Tom Korologos
Deputy Assistant to the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Tom:

I am enclosing letter from a young man who is a close personal friend of mine, Tom W. Conger, Jr., requesting that I transmit a letter for The President's attention.

I am glad to comply with Tom's request and will appreciate it if you will see that the subject matter contained in Mr. Michel's letter is brought to the attention of the appropriate White House official.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely,

U. S. S.
