A Southern Lullaby.

Words and Music by
THOMAS CURTIS CLARK.

Moderato.

The first system of music features a vocal line on a single staff and piano accompaniment on two staves. The key signature is two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is common time (C). The tempo is marked 'Moderato'. The piano accompaniment begins with a forte (f) dynamic. The vocal line starts with a rit. (ritardando) marking. The first few notes of the vocal line are: G4, A4, B4, C5, B4, A4, G4.

The second system continues the music. The vocal line has two staves. The lyrics are: "Sun-beams am g'wine to / Screech-owl am ginnin' to". The piano accompaniment includes dynamics p (piano) and mp (mezzo-piano). The key signature and time signature remain the same.

The third system continues the music. The vocal line has two staves. The lyrics are: "bed, _____ Sun-man am hid - in' his head, _____ / peek _____ Moths play - in' hide - an' - go - seek, _____". The piano accompaniment continues with the same key signature and time signature.

Ev'-ry day must have its mor-row, sun-shine always follows rain,

Ev'-ry soul must have its sor-row, ev'-ry loss must have its gain,

Ev'-ry flower has its fra-grance, ev'-ry life in time must wane,

Ev'-ry road must have its turn-ing, and ev'-ry heart must have its pain.
