TIS the witching hour,
 When the firefly swings his light;
 We must leave Love's Bow'r,
 It is time to say goodnight.

Kiss me goodnight, kiss me goodnight,
 And when your dear eyes close,
 Come to me in your dreams, over the moon-
 lit streams,

While stars above, like lamps of love,
 Let down their peaceful light.
 Hark to the song that the winds are composing!

Hasten! The portals of dreamland are closing.

Even the roses are dozing:—
 So kiss me, come kiss me goodnight.

With our love songs tender
 We have dreamed the night away,
 So in sweet surrender,
 Let me hold you while I say:—
