"You Can't Go Wrong With a 'Feist' Song"

"I Want to Be There"

"THERE" means where you were born. "I Want to Be There" is not just "another" home-town song. It's a bigger and better home-town song than was ever written before. Recalls to every mother's son and daughter the happiness of play-days—the ecstasy of love-days. It's a safe bet that "I Want to Be There" will knock the sales-records sky high. Why shouldn't it? It takes you home—to mother—to the old dog Rover—and to that "face so pleasin'"—OF COURSE you "want to be there." Today's the day to get your copy. Lyrics by Grant Clarke; music by Jimmie V. Monaco. Introduced and featured by the inimitable Bessie Wynn.

"My Own Venetian Rose"

It's like "gilding refined gold" to attempt to praise this newest love song with superlatives of speech. Suffice it to say that the words and music are by Al. Piantadosi, Jack Glogau and Joe McCarthy. "My Own Venetian Rose" is the song that Mae Francis loves to sing. It's the song that YOU will love to sing. AND DANCERS!—here is good news for you! It is also published as a waltz under the title of "Venetian Rose." Get your partner quick when you hear this Hesitation of Hesitations. It's the dance "hit" of New York and Palm Beach. A haunting, resistless theme. You can't keep still when you hear it.

"I WANT TO BE THERE" "MY OWN VENETIAN ROSE"

CHORUS

I want to be there a-mong the sha-dy nooks, I want to be there to see how moth-er looks, I want to pet my old dog Rov-er, Who gets the mail and wags his tail all o-ver, I want to be

CHORUS

Oh! my sweet Ven-et-ian rose, How I want you, no one knows, Ev-ry sad-wave in the deep blue sea Sends a love from you to me, When I sip my
