BUSINESS MEETING

At the 2014 Annual Conference of the American Accounting Association
Atlanta Marriott Marquis Hotel, Atlanta, Georgia
Lobby Level, Room 503
Sunday, August 3, 2014 7:00 PM to 8:00 PM

MINUTES

The meeting convened at 7:10 PM.

1. Opening remarks, welcome – President Massimo Sargiacomo

A quorum was declared.

Sargiacomo welcomed the group and expressed his pleasure and honor to be Academy president.

2. Reports

A. Membership and treasurer's report – Treasurer Jennifer Reynolds-Moehrle

As of August 1, 2014, Academy membership totaled 415, of whom 234 are individuals and 181 institutions. 240 are U.S. members and 175 are non-U.S. Total membership is down 1% from last year. Institutional membership especially continues to decline.

Because of the Academy's contract with EBSCO, we have made up some of the losses from institutional membership decline.

The audit of the Academy's financial statements for 2013 resulted in a clean opinion. We continue to use the auditors in Starkville, Mississippi, because they do a good job at a very good price.

At December 31, 2013, the Academy had $418,911 of assets. About $280,000 of net assets are restricted for awards and conferences; about $112,000 of net assets are unrestricted.

- B. Operations were a little better than break-even due to the generosity of the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh, which did not charge the Academy for the expenses of the conference held there. 2014 operations will probably result in a small loss of a few hundred dollars. About $32,000 in dues, among other revenues, will be available to cover publication of the Accounting Historians Journal and the Notebook, Academy administration, and awards.

- C. Report on Garner Center – Secretary Stephanie Moussalli

In May and June of 2014, at the request of the dean of the University of Alabama's Culverhouse College of Commerce and Business Administration, the Academy removed most of its remaining inventory of journals, papers, and books from the Garner Center, where they had been stored for some years. Academy publication distribution supervisor Becca Hayes mailed some of the items to appropriate recipients, she and Stephanie Moussalli loaded Moussalli's car with most of the papers and some other items, the College of Commerce kept some items for Garner's heirs or for display in the College, and the remainder (mostly books) either went to the library at the University of Alabama or were discarded. Moussalli brought the papers and some books to the University of Mississippi, where they are now stored at the Patterson School of Accountancy. Hayes retained a few copies of the entire run of the AHJ at her university.

- D. Accounting Historians Journal – Operational update – Editor Gloria Vollmers

The AHJ received 29 submissions from July, 2013 through the beginning of July, 2014. Three are under first review, nine are under revise-and-resubmit, six were rejected, one was withdrawn, and ten have been accepted.

Vollmers called for submissions to the AHJ's new "Salmagundi" section. Submissions are editorially reviewed and may include short pieces such as book reviews, obituaries, replies to other work, or commentary on accounting-related current events.

- E. The Accounting Historians Notebook – Operational update – Vice President of Communications Yvette Lazdowski, on behalf of Tiffany Welch

The AHN would like to receive short pieces on accounting history from members, in addition to the conference announcements and other items it publishes.

- F. CPE Workshop: Accounting History Perspectives - Feedback – Yvette Lazdowski

There were 27 attendees and 32 paid enrollments at this year's CPE session earlier today. Of these revenues, the AAA takes $250 and the rest go to the Academy. Lazdowski called for suggestions or themes for next year's workshop.

G. Trustee issues: Governance and strategy – Trustees Chairman Gary Previts, President Massimo Sargiacomo

The first Academy trustees' meeting in some time was just held before this meeting. This is due to the difficulties of convening such a global group.

An important outcome of the meeting concerned the need to make better professional arrangements for the AHJ, especially in those sophisticated publication techniques and statistics that are commonly expected in good journals today. In November of 2008, the Academy signed a Memorandum of Understanding with the AAA, which was to be reviewed in five years. The officers and trustees are discussing renewing that MOU, led by Sargiacomo. The trustees unanimously decided to give Sargiacomo the responsibility to pursue the question of relations with the AAA and the MOU, in the belief that the Academy must seriously consider options for the future.
