"COTTAGE GARDENS."
NATCHEZ, MISS.

32741—19

Built in the 1790's. One time owned by Don Jose Vidal, acting governor of the Natchez Territory at the time of the Spanish evacuation, (1798), it is noted as a type of early architecture now growing rare as it was supplanted by the later mansion style. Of special interest is the front door and the unusual stairway.
