Friday
night

Dearest Dannie,

Your letter and
card came and helped
more than you know.
Everybody gets a little homesick at times and I'm just like everybody else so it made me feel good to know that you are all right and are missing me.

After this week I'll be able to write after.
There's been so much to do these first few days and at night were ~~so~~ awfully tired.

Tonight we went to a picture show. We didn't decide to go until late so we were a ~~little~~ little later than usual getting home.

Called Mary Lane
tonight and talked to her a while. She said she would have me out soon - when Joe comes home.

The heat has been terrific this week - even worse than it was at home. It's rained every day ~~or~~ for an hour or so.

We can hardly wait for Sunday so will be able to do a little sight-seeing. We are going to the National Cathedral for the 11:00 services. This one of the two most famous churches in the city so I'm anxious to see it.

We may go down the Potomac on a boat to Dr. J. Vernon Sunday afternoon.

I don't know what

I'd so wish out Betty.
We're having a wonderful time together.

I'm too tired to write more but will write again soon. I always miss you so much and read your letters over and over.

Take care of yourself
while I'm gone - I love you more than you know.

I'll write everybody else Sunday so give them all my love - Pivers and Mrs. Thomason.
I've wish I could see Lucia Adams tonight.
Write soon. Devotedly,
Eve
