Mr. T. L. Treadwell

Dear Sir! I am just giving out work, it will be at least ten days before I can make a shipment to you, you will have to see to the things for some time after they arrive. Old Mr. Hora is going to Columbia to attend to that old business there, he is an easy good man, but will not be able to get along like us, because it takes him too long a time to say nothing, but when he gets engaged on a subject he is intelligent, still he cannot take exact with the people of our Country, nor is there any of the hole concern him that can do as well as Cutler, and you know that he is not capable, therefore I don't fear much.

Yours
V. L. Williams and
