

10-18-1842

Tuition, 18 October 1842

Robert M. Dickenson

Follow this and additional works at: https://egrove.olemiss.edu/aldrichcorr_b

Part of the United States History Commons

Recommended Citation

Dickenson, Robert M., "Tuition, 18 October 1842" (1842). Personal and Business Correspondence, 1841-1850 (Series 1.2). 45.
https://egrove.olemiss.edu/aldrichcorr_b/45

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Aldrich Collection at eGrove. It has been accepted for inclusion in Personal and Business Correspondence, 1841-1850 (Series 1.2) by an authorized administrator of eGrove. For more information, please contact egrove@olemiss.edu.

Pension Office, Sept 25. 1840.

Sir,

The amended declaration and proof in the case of Mrs Amelia Treadwell, widow of Benben Treadwell, deceased, have been examined and filed with her other papers.

If the period of marriage cannot be proved by witnesses from personal knowledge, the testimony of witnesses should be produced who knew her to have been a married woman previous to January 1st. 1794.

I am, respectfully,

Your obt. servt.

J. L. Treadwell, Esq

Lamar,

Mississippi.

J L Edward

J. L. Edwards
Comm of Pensions.

J. L. Treadwell, Esq
Lamar,
Mississippi.