

Exhibit: John G. Adler

Case #1

Case #1: Contents

1. Photocopy of letter from William Males, director of local migration, to Mr. Theodor Glueck, confirming that “Janes Adler” has “successfully escaped Hungary.” 07 December 1956
2. Photocopy of telegram to the American Embassy in Vienna. “American relatives anxious to receive following Hungarian escapees,” 30 November 1956
3. Diploma from the University of Mississippi, Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering to John Gabor Adler, May 1960
4. Membership certificate from Phi Epsilon Pi fraternity at the University of Mississippi, Alpha Sigma chapter, February 15, 1959
5. Mr. Adler’s Ole Miss pennant, blue felt with red writing, featuring Colonel Rebel
6. UM campus map, drawn and signed by John G. Adler, 09 April 2013 (framed)
7. Black and white photos of Adler and UM classmates (framed)
8. Membership certificate, Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers, March 1964 (framed)

Case #2

Case #2: Contents

1. Framed photograph, Senator Trent Lott with John G. Adler. Inscribed by the senator, “Best wishes for my friend, John Adler. Love those Ole Miss Rebels!”
2. Plaque, University of Mississippi Pacesetters
3. Plaque, University of Mississippi Engineer of Distinction Award, Presented by the Engineering Alumni Chapter of the University of Mississippi Alumni Association to John G. Adler in recognition of Outstanding Professional Achievement, Exemplary Public Service, and Loyalty to the University of Mississippi, 2002.
4. Photograph of Adler with other award recipients, 2002
5. Photo of Mr. and Mrs. Adler in a silver frame from the 2008 Presidential Debate hosted by the University of Mississippi
6. Open book: John G. Adler Engineering Scholarship Endowment, October 1993-2013 (Full text is available on issuu.com)
7. Mr. Adler’s Ole Miss hats, featuring Colonel Rebel (embroidered)
8. Plaque in honor of John G. Adler that usually hangs in the lobby of Weir Hall, outside the two computer labs partially maintained by the Adler endowment to the Department of Computer Science

