Mr
William Lindsey Esqr for favor Claborn County MS Bishop Mississippi Territory

Barren County Kentucky March 19th 1808

Mr Linsey

Sir I rec^d a letter from Mr Patterson stating to me that he had not collected my money that the little more was sold for and further states that there had been time for these is to me to sell there crop

And wished that I had in Mr Bishop to take gotten I did not think that Mr Bishop would like to trouble himself with getting as he was at such a distance from home and I would think that it would not be generous to ask such a favor of that gentleman tho by this time every man has a chance of making sale of his produce and I want you if you please to buy the collect the money dew me in your county for I am in much need of money at this time I have promised money on the faith of getting what is dew me in that Territory Sir any services you may render me in my business shall be ever remembered by me please to collect my money and send it by Mr Bishop on his return from New Orleans Give my compliments to Mrs Linsey and Mr Patterson and all acquaintances Sir I am your old friend

R B

Sir as to particulars
I will refer you to Mr Bishop
