THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

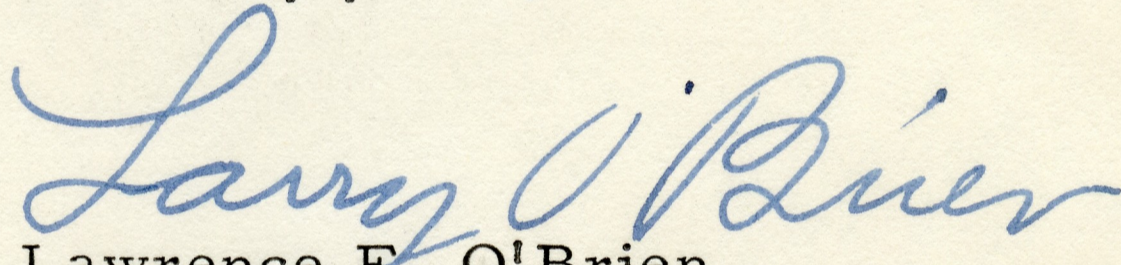

September 25, 1961

Dear Senator Eastland:

The President has asked me to thank you for your letter of September 18 in which you and thirty-nine of your colleagues in the Senate joined in expressing approval of the Tariff Commission's recommendations in the Wilton and velvet carpet case.

The Commission's report is presently being reviewed by the Trade Policy Committee, headed by the Secretary of Commerce. That Committee's appraisal and also the views expressed in your letter will be carefully considered by the President in the course of his final review of the Tariff Commission's report.

Sincerely yours,

Lawrence F. O'Brien
Special Assistant to the President

Honorable James O. Eastland
