Dear Editor:

I refer to the editorial cartoon by Morris which appeared in your paper June 29: it showed an artist, labeled "STATE CONTROLLED SOVIET ARTISTS," looking in despair at a "PAINT KIT" of a pastoral scene marked "APPROVED BY THE CENTRAL COMMITTEE." This shows your disapproval, I suppose, of the censorship of art in the Soviet Union. Good. It's a beginning.

Please send me a copy of the cartoon. It is always educational to show people what color the totalitarian pot will call the totalitarian kettle. Besides, I want to send it to Professor and Mrs. G. Ray Kerciu, formerly of the University here, so that they can have the last laugh over their recent ordeal in Mississippi now that they are safe and sound.
