Theoretical, empirical and review papers are welcomed in all areas of accounting, business and financial history.

The conference provides delegates with the opportunity of presenting and discussing, in an informal setting, papers ranging from early working drafts to fully developed manuscripts. The 2010 conference, organised by Malcolm Anderson, will be held at Cardiff University. It will commence at lunchtime on Monday, 6 September 2010 and conclude in the late afternoon of Tuesday, 7 September 2010.

The conference fee will include all conference materials and the following meals: Monday - lunch, afternoon tea, wine reception and the conference dinner; Tuesday: morning coffee, lunch and afternoon tea). Details of university accommodation and a list of nearby hotel options can be found on the conference website - www.cf.ac.uk/carbs/conferences/abfhc10/index.html.
