W. L. Treadwell Esq. Dear Sir

B. W. Mc. Alexander requested me to say to you, the twenty dollars of Alcorn money you & he had an understanding about. Please send it him by Ben as Alexander is suffering from Rheumatism and not able at this time to come & see you.

Please examine the express office and learn whether cannot there be any thing for me to your care. If so send it me by Ben with caution administered to him to be very careful & say to Mr. Moore to send me the amount due & I will send or bring the money next week. Yours Truly James F. Cole

Mr. L. Treadwell Esq.
