Near Father.

I rec<sup>d</sup>. on Saturday from you four (4) Bales Cotton marked [T T T]. Yesterday I rec<sup>d</sup>. four (4) Bales marked [A B] also three (3) Bales marked [T T T] making 11 Bales altogether, which is all on hand yet - These shipments except 2 Bales are very low Cotton but I will put them on the market the first breeze and do the best that can be done with them - There was some better feeling in the market yesterday evening and Middling sold pretty freely at 30¢, but the news from New York of a decline of 1/2 to 1¢ for the week to day has put a damper upon it. I don't think there will be any considerable advance in Cotton but the market will be fluctuating sometimes more active than at others & I will try and select an active market to sell on - all well Your son A. B. Treadwell
