(THE STAR OF JACOB)

Dear Jim:

Just a hundred years and the academic place becomes more historic. All God-fearing people admire you the way you put your courage into action not for selfish ends but for a share of the Righteous Cause Abraham Lincoln first did.

In the eyes of The Lord you are a worthy son of Jacob and in the eyes of us sinful Christians, young men like you deserve the Fruits of Righteousness over which drops of New Good Blood have just been sprinkled.

You have<sup>a</sup> right-thinking President in Jack and a Law Enforcer in Robert unbent before violence and that's enough to make us feel more grateful towards God and more hopeful towards America.

May God bless your race henceforth living in harmony with the great Family Nation of the United States of America. Herewith my respects to your Parents & Family.

Yours truly

C H Yeh
