LAURA S. JONES
1134 NORTH OGDEN DRIVE, APT. 1
LOS ANGELES 46, CALIFORNIA

Dear Mr. Meredith -

The writer graduated sixty years ago from the University of Wisconsin and has been much interested in your pioneering in the deep South.

I have been seeing newspaper accounts from many places but have always turned to my Christian Science Monitor for an unbiased report.

I am today sending my grandson his subscription. He is doing graduate work at New York University. Before he had four years at Marlboro College in Vermont he had his copy of the Monitor. The college, as I suppose "The News" has a copy in the library.

It came to me that you might enjoy your own copy to read the world news in your own room and I am writing to ask if you would accept a subscription.

Under separate mailing I am sending you a marked copy which will give you some information of the coverage and quality of the paper if you are not familiar with it.

Some one said the reading of the Monitor daily was equivalent to a college education.

I am also enclosing stamped and addressed envelope for a reply.

Am sure the unselfish motive that has led you to take this step will guide you in the years to come.
God will be at your side if you always turn to Him.

Oh yes, I am a white woman of 82 years young.

Sincerely,

(Mrs. B. H.) Laura Sage Jones
