11th October, 1962.

Mr. James Meredith,
Oxford University,
OXFORD. MISSISSIPPI. U.S.A.

Dear Mr. Meredith,

We are two people who wish to offer you our heartfelt congratulations and moral support in your courageous fight against the vicious racial discrimination being practised against you and all people of your race.

May your splendid action do much to unite the feelings of all decent people against the philosophy of racial hatred, and so speed the time when people of whatever nationality or color may live as brothers.

Yours sincerely,

Barbara Finn
