2 Oct. 1962.

Dear Mr. Meredith,
My husband and I felt we had to write and express our admiration for your courage and also our disgust and feeling of shame that in this day and age, you should have to fight for something which should be a basic right to all people.

Perhaps this note
will convey a little towards helping you
in the knowledge that everyone does not think like your fellow students.
My husband and I believe in the dignity of man and human rights.

All the best

Sincerely

Mrs. Alice J. Campbell
Mr. N. J. Campbell.
