ALEX HAMILTON

HEAD COACH - 2ND SEASON SOUTH CAROLINA '05

Alex Hamilton was hired as head coach of the men's golf program on May 10, 2017. Hamilton spent the previous season as head coach at South Alabama. He replaced Vic Lipscomb, who retired after 13 seasons as the head coach.

In his first year at Wofford in 2017-18, Hamilton helped the Terriers to three top 10 finishes, including a second place finish in the Wofford Invitational. The second place finish was Wofford's best since 2016 and tied for the best finish by a Wofford team in the tournament as the Terriers have finished as the runner-up five times in the 30 year history of the tournament. Five Terriers either set or tied new career bests in the event. Nick Willis was selected to the SoCon All-Freshman team for his performance on the season.

Prior to South Alabama, Hamilton spent three seasons as an assistant coach at the University of South Carolina. He helped the Gamecocks to three straight NCAA Championship appearances.

In 2016-17, he led the Jaguars to a sixth place finish at the Sun Belt Conference Championships. On the season, South Alabama had five top-five performances while placing among the top 10 in all but the opening event of the year. Freshman Rasmus Karlsson earned second team All-Sun Belt honors.

"We are pleased to introduce Alex Hamilton as head coach of the men's golf team," said Richard Johnson, Director of Athletics. "During our search, one of the names that kept coming up was Alex's. He has strong connections in the South Carolina golf community and has all the attributes we were looking for in a leader for this program. We look forward to working with Coach Hamilton."

"I am extremely excited for the opportunity to coach the men's golf team at Wofford," said Hamilton. "The Terriers have a strong tradition and the chance to lead such a great program is something that I am looking forward to. Wofford has a track history of producing professional players such as William McGirt and the recruiting base in the Carolinas is one of the best in the country."

During his three seasons as an assistant on the Gamecock staff, he helped coach three individuals who earned All-America accolades and a trio of all-Southeastern Conference selections as South Carolina won 12 tournaments with nine players picking up medalist honors. The program finished among the top five at an NCAA Regional each of those seasons to advance to the national championship, where they would move on to the final day of stroke play and end up among the top 15 on each occasion. In 2016, the Gamecocks advanced to match play for the first time since the format was adopted in 2009.

South Carolina had a 286.58 scoring average in 2015-16 and placed among the top five nine times, which both stand second in the program's record book. Carolina won four tournaments on the season — including three events in the spring — before going on to record a second-place finish at the NCAA Tuscaloosa Regional. Matt NeSmith was a first-team All-America selection, also receiving PING All-Southeast Region and first-team All-conference recognition. Keenan Huskey was also named All-region, while the team would end up 10th in the final Golfweek/Sagarin rankings.

South Carolina's 2014-15 squad had 10 top-five finishes, surpassing the mark recorded in Hamilton's first year on the staff. That included earning five tournament titles as Carolina would go on to end the campaign ranked sixth in the final Golfweek/Sagarin ratings. NeSmith became just the second Gamecock to claim medalist honors at the SEC Championship, winning by a six-stroke margin with a school-record 14-under-par 196 total, as both he and Will Starke were chosen first-team all-league while adding PING all-Southeast Region recognition; the duo were named All-Americans by both Golfweek and PING.

During his first season on the staff, Hamilton helped the Gamecocks earn three tournament championships and tie a then school record with nine top-five performances. Will Murphy earned All-America honors after tying for 15th place at the tournament and NeSmith collecting first-team all-region and second-team All-SEC accolades.

His efforts in recruiting helped the Gamecocks secure commitments from eight top-100 players, while off the course USC had 29 individuals named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll and eight recognized as Cleveland Golf/Srixon All-America Scholars by the Golf Coaches Association of America.

In addition to coaching duties both in competition and at practice, Hamilton was responsible for assisting with recruiting, helped oversee team workouts, handled NCAA compliance paperwork, and aided with oversight of the program's budget. He also served as tournament director for the Camden Collegiate Invitational.

Hamilton joined the coaching ranks as an assistant at Mercer during the spring 2013 semester, where helped the program have two individuals earn an invitation to an NCAA Regional for the first time in school history.

He received his degree in economics and real estate from South Carolina in 2005 after earning four letters as a member of the golf team. In addition to collecting second-team All-SEC honors as a junior, he was twice selected a GCAA All-America Scholar-Athlete and made the SEC Academic Honor Roll three times. The Gamecocks earned an invitation to an NCAA Regional all four of his years, including advancing to the NCAA Championship when he was a sophomore.

Upon graduation, Hamilton competed on several professional tours including playing in a pair of PGA Tour events during the 2010 season. In six-and-a-half years, he participated in more than 100 tournaments, picking up 31 top-10 finishes highlighted by a pair of victories on the eGolf Tour.

Hamilton, a native of Aiken, S.C., and his wife Kristin, have one daughter, Hope. His father, Jim, was a two-year captain and four-year letter-winner for the Gamecock golf program as well.

HEATH BRADLEY

ASSISTANT COACH - SECOND SEASON
CLEMSON '12

Wofford College added Heath Bradley to the men's golf staff as assistant coach in the fall of 2017.

Bradley works full-time for Cleveland/Srixon as a field service representative in South Carolina.

Before moving to South Carolina, he worked at the University of Louisville as the Director of Golf Operations for both the men's and women's programs.

During his time at Louisville, the Cardinals saw success both on the course and in the classroom. The men's program reached the NCAA Championship, finishing 14th, while Robin Sciot-Siegrist won the ACC Individual Championship and was named to the 2016 European Palmer Cup team. The Cardinals also excelled in the classroom, earning GCAA All-Academic team honors.

Prior to his time at Louisville, Bradley spent the 2012-15 seasons at Clemson University as a member of the golf staff. While at Clemson, Bradley worked with both the men's and newly created women's programs, focusing on operations, fundraising, and recruiting.

JOSH MEDLER

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH - SIXTH SEASON
HANOVER COLLEGE '02

Josh Medler joined the Wofford College athletic department as Director of Strength and Conditioning in June of 2013. Prior to Wofford, Medler spent six seasons on the University of Memphis strength and conditioning staff.

He works primarily with the football and men's basketball teams, while overseeing the strength and conditioning development for all eighteen sports at Wofford.

In his six seasons at Memphis, Medler was responsible for the men's and women's soccer teams, volleyball team, and the men's and women's track sprinters. He also assisted with football and baseball.

Prior to his return to Memphis in 2007, Medler was the head strength and conditioning coordinator for Union Public Schools in Tulsa, Okla. As the first-ever Union system strength coach, Medler was in charge of building a training program for all freshmen, junior varsity and varsity athletic teams.

Medler first went to Memphis in the summer of 2004 as a graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach, working with football, baseball, softball, and the track sprinters. Medler graduated with his master's degree in human movement sciences from Memphis in the spring of 2006.

He began his professional career as strength and conditioning coach at Anderson University, a liberal arts NCAA Division III school in Indiana. While at Anderson, Medler was responsible for training the football team and coaching the defensive line.

As a native of Berne, Indiana, Medler was a four-year football letterman at Hanover College, where he earned his bachelor's degree in sociology in 2002.

Medler is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength & Conditioning Association, and is a certified level one club coach by USA Weightlifting. Medler resides in Spartanburg.

THE WOFFORD INVITATIONAL

HISTORY

THE WOFFORD INVITATIONAL IS ONE OF THE MOST PRESTIGIOUS MEN'S TOURNAMENTS IN THE SOUTHEAST. IT INVITES PARTICIPANTS FROM AROUND THE NATION TO COMPETE IN A TWO-DAY, 54-HOLE EVENT.

WHAT SETS THE TOURNAMENT APART FROM THE OTHERS IN THE REGION IS THE STRONG TRADITION THAT BEGAN WHEN THE TERRIERS WERE A MEMBER OF NCAA DIVISION II. IN THE 27 YEARS THE TOURNAMENT HAS BEEN HELD, THERE HAVE BEEN 17 DIFFERENT TEAM CHAMPIONS CROWNED AT THE CAROLINA COUNTRY CLUB AND COUNTRY CLUB OF SPARTANBURG. THE LIST OF CHAMPIONS AND PARTICIPANTS IS IMPRESSIVE, BUT IT IS THE GOLFERS WHO HAVE COMPETED FOR THE INDIVIDUAL TITLE THAT MAKES THE TOURNAMENT WHAT IT IS. THE WOFFORD INVITATIONAL HAS INSTANT RECOGNITION WITH THE LIKES OF PGA TOUR VETERANS GIBBY GILBERT, LEN MATTIACE, RICHARD COUGHLAN, BRETT QUIGLEY, CHARLIE RYMER, AND KEVIN JOHNSON ALL WALKING THE CAROLINA COUNTRY CLUB AS TOURNAMENT PLAYERS.

NAIA NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

TERRIERS TAKE HOME THE NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

JUNE 8, 1973

THE 1973 CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM CLAIMED THE FIRST NATIONAL TITLE FOR ANY COLLEGIATE TEAM IN THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA

GRAMLING, S.C.—Wofford's Terriers stunned the rest of the NAIA National Golf Tournament field with a sizzling final round to win the national championship by 14 strokes at the Village Greens Country Club.

The Terriers' title marks the first national collegiate championship won by a South Carolina team in any sport, and the victory margin was among the largest posted in NAIA national golf competition. Campbell College of Buies Creek, N.C., nine shots back after the second round, turned in a fine 297 total, but could only watch as Wofford rolled over the hill-laden course for a 73-72-75-72--292 showing.

The Terriers posted the best team total in each of the tournament's three days. But, as fate and the bounce of the ball would have it, the individual crown eluded Wofford. The top individual Terrier was sophomore Marion Moore, who produced a par 72 to finish three shots back of the leaders at 216. Wofford's Paul Hyman was fourth at 217 and the Terriers' Pat Crowley tied for seventh at 220.

Wofford's top four players received NAIA All-American honors. Wofford coach Earl Buice was named the NAIA Coach of the Year after adding the national championship to his list of four district championships and two state crowns.

Wofford was never challenged the last day as none of the other 16 schools could mount a charge.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS REUNITE

APRIL 15, 2013

2013 marked the 40th anniversary of Wofford's NAIA National Championship. In honor of the event, all five members of the '73 championship team recreated the photo they took 40 years prior, holding the national championship banner and standing in the same order they stood that same day. In place of Wofford's late head coach Earl Buice and the NAIA Commissioner pictured in the original photo, both children of the late head coach Earl Buice held the championship trophy.

The event was held in conjunction with the Coca-Cola Wofford Invitational at the Country Club of Spartanburg. After watching the men's golf team finish its round, the national championship team took part in a dinner and ceremony to commemorate their accomplishments.

P.J. "MR. RULES" BOATWRIGHT

P.J. Boatwright, a 1951 Wofford College graduate, was the world's foremost authority on the Rules of Golf. Boatwright was Executive Director, Rules and Competitions, for the United States Golf Association (USGA). Inside the game, he was known as "Mr. Rules," having helped to write or rewrite many of them.

As a senior rules official of the USGA, Boatwright was a towering and familiar figure at U.S. Open Championships. More than any other individual, Boatwright responsible for the playing conditions and conduct of the Open.

Over a period of 31 years, he oversaw the course setup and conduct of virtually every USGA championship. As Joint Secretary of the World Amateur Golf Council, he was responsible for the conduct of the World Amateur Team Championships for men and women.

During championships, Boatwright carried his walkie-talkie in the outer pocket of his jacket in order to keep his hands free to finesse his signature pipe.

"P.J. Boatwright, for about a dozen years, was the most powerful person in amateur golf and maybe all of golf," Wofford head men's golf coach Vic Lipscomb said. "His finger was on the pulse for all golf played in the United States."

Boatwright joined the USGA in 1959 and was its longest-tenured and most revered staff member. He became executive director in 1969 and executive director of rules and competitions in 1980.

Boatwright's stature was such that the quadrennial rules conference between the USGA and the Royal and Ancient, traditionally held at St. Andrew's, had been rescheduled for Florida in the hope that Boatwright might be able to attend before he passed away. As Michael Bonallack, secretary of the R&A, said, "A rules conference without P.J. would be like strawberries without cream."

Boatwright was the guardian of tradition in all things related to golf, and especially liked to see narrow fairways and slick, firm greens in the Open.

Boatwright oversaw his last event in New Zealand in October 1990, when the United States won the Women's World Amateur Team Championship at the Russley Golf Club in Christchurch, and Sweden captured the men's championship at the Christchurch Golf Club.

The last significant shot he saw was Phil Mickelson's 40-foot putt for a birdie on the last hole that saved the United States a tie for second place with New Zealand.

Boatwright, who was born in Augusta, Ga., walked his first 18 holes at age 10. He didn't have a club in hand. He was just there to keep his grandfather company. Shortly thereafter, he played his first nine holes at the Augusta Arsenal Golf Club.

Growing up in Spartanburg, S.C., Boatwright became a championship amateur golfer. He won the South Carolina Amateur in 1951 and the Carolina Open in 1957 and 1959. Overall, he qualified for four United States Amateurs. Boatwright's handicap was once a +1.

The P.J. Boatwright Memorial Trophy was established in 1992 to honor the team champion at the Wofford Invitational each spring at The Carolina Country Club in Spartanburg.

Boatwright was the recipient of the 1990 William D. Richardson Award for distinguished contributions to golf, given by the Golf Writers Association of America. He also received the Metropolitan (New York) Golf Association's Distinguished Service Award in 1983 and the Metropolitan Golf Writers Association's 1986 Gold Tee Award.

Boatwright was selected as a member of the Wofford Athletic Hall of Fame, the South Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame and the Carolinas Golf Hall of Fame.

MOORE CROWNED TOURNAMENT MEDALIST APRIL 14, 1998

SPARTANBURG, S.C.—Rion Moore carried a four-shot lead going into the final round and finished with a birdie on the final hole to record a 74 to capture the Southern Conference individual championship by one stroke over East Tennessee State's David Christensen, the first league title by any Wofford individual or team.

Moore landed his second shot four feet from the hole on the par-5 18th hole, but could not make his eagle putt which would have sent the tournament into a sudden-death playoff for the team championship. However, Moore did make the birdie try to preserve the individual title.

MCGIRT WINS SoCON INDIVIDUAL TITLE APRIL 22, 2001

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn.—Wofford's William McGirt made par on the first hole of a sudden-death playoff Sunday to win the individual title at the 2001 Southern Conference Men's Golf Championship. McGirt was tied with East Tennessee State's Pat Beste at 5-under par 205 after regulation.

The Wofford senior two-putted on the 352-yard, par four first hole at the par 70 Chattanooga Golf and Country Club. Beste's tee shot on the playoff hole went left of the fairway among a tree-lined area, and he managed a bogey to finish as the runner-up.

McGirt had been two back from the lead after the first two rounds of play and was one shot behind Beste. However, he birdied his first hole in the final round to close in on the lead.

"I felt like I needed to get off to a good start and I did that," McGirt said.

Ironically, Beste was last year's SoCon medalist while McGirt finished a stroke back to place second. Wofford head coach Dan O'Connell felt that the win was most fitting for the talented senior.

"What a great way for him to close out his career," O'Connell said. "He really, really deserved to win it, especially after last year."

The win, McGirt's first of the season, coincided with the final competition of his collegiate career. For the senior, there was no better way to finish.

"It was a great way to go out," McGirt said. "I didn't have a great fall, but the last three tournaments have gone well. I ended on a good note."

NAIA NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR

EARL BUICE, 1973

Head coach Earl Buice led the 1973 Wofford men's golf team to the NAIA National Championship title, the first national title won by any collegiate team in South Carolina. During his time at the helm of the men's golf program, Buice coached five players to NAIA All-American Honors. He was inducted into the Wofford Athletic Hall of Fame in 1983.

GOLF FACILITIES

The Wofford men's and women's golf teams, beginning in the fall of 2006, utilize the newly renovated Golf Learning Center on campus. Thanks to generous gifts from many friends, families and alumni, the Terrier programs have a first-class indoor facility which is exclusively reserved for their use.

The center is located on the upper floor of Andrews Field House, the former varsity on-campus gymnasium. The venue contains 17 lockers, one for each of the men's and women's student-athletes, a hitting area, video capabilities for swing and technique study and storage capacities. With a clubhouse-type locker room setting, the Terriers can study their academic courses or review their golf game on a large HDTV. Two computer stations are also available with full email and internet access.
