PRESENTATION OF COLORS

National Anthem.....Thomas Baty

The Star Spangled Banner

Oh, say, can you see by the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming.
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say, does that Star Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

From shore to shore, from sea to sea
Oh, may thy name full honored be

☞ HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS ☛

Robert S. Bennett, Doctor of Law

Robert S. Bennett, a renowned trial lawyer, is a partner in the Washington, D.C., firm of Hogan Lovells. He has tried numerous high-profile cases and represented corporations and individuals in criminal, civil, Security and Exchange Commission, enforcement, and congressional matters. In 2008, Mr. Bennett authored In the Ring, The Trials of a Washington Lawyer, a personal memoir filled with practical wisdom, history, ethics and the role of lawyers as citizens and counsel. Mr. Bennett was instrumental in establishing and continues to be active in fostering the renowned Jones Tamm lecture series at The University of Montana School of Law. He has served on the School of Law Board of Visitors and is a member of the state bar associations in the District of Columbia, New York, Virginia, and Montana.

Note from the Honoree: The single most important quality a lawyer must have is a reputation for honesty and integrity. Judges and lawyers know who can be trusted and who can't be trusted. As an officer of the court, which every lawyer is, there is a duty to be honest and candid. A lawyer with a reputation for candor and integrity gives much value to his client. I believe very strongly that a lawyer must live a balanced life. A lawyer is a part of a community, and a family, and must, at least part of the time, use his or her talents and skills for the public good. It is a great privilege to practice law and we must all act accordingly. Let me fill you in on a secret. If you have balance and fullness in your life, you will be a better lawyer. Wisdom comes from living a full life and experiencing all of its sounds, aromas, and colors. And the greatest thing you can give to a client is wisdom.

Stewart M. Brandborg, Doctor of Science

An alumni of The University of Montana College of Forestry and Conservation, Stewart M. Brandborg devoted his life to the protection of Montana and the nation's wildlife and publicly-owned lands. Following an early career in wildlife research and management in Montana and Idaho, he was associated for over 32 years with national environmental organizations in Washington, DC. Serving as Executive Director of the Wilderness Society he worked to gain Congressional passage of the Wilderness Act, the Wild and Scenic River Act and other landmark environmental laws. Throughout his lifetime he has enlisted thousands of everyday citizens in the never-ending challenge for the protection of wilderness and natural environment.

Note from the Honoree: Receiving this honor from my alma mater marks a historic culmination in my lifetime of work for preservation of wilderness and our public lands. I owe much to the University of Montana for providing me with a solid foundation that made possible any achievement I may claim in my professional life. Given this prestigious opportunity, I offer today's graduates, for whatever use can be made of them, these guideposts for happy and fulfilling lifetimes: Find pleasure in your day-to-day living. Have fun, seek work that gives you pleasure and fulfillment. You are living in tough times. Don't let yourself be discouraged if things don't always pan out the way you'd like. Your problems and challenges will have a way of working themselves out. Build your own personal support circle- your family, life partner and the many others with whom you find happiness and inspiration. These are the close friends with a light in their eyes whose challenging ideas inspire you to be your best. Use them as your source of reinforcement in meeting personal and professional challenges to maintain your own resilience. Be aware of the world around you and be involved on whatever level and however you can to serve in leaving the world a better place because you were here. Discover the fulfillment of meaningful involvement in your local neighborhood, community, state, national and international issues. Working in these circles will be an important source of lasting friendships. Take full control of your life. Build on your successes. Learn from your mistakes. And never forget to enjoy life.

John Hollenback, Doctor of Science

John Hollenback has shared decades of range management and natural resource stewardship through a life committed to public service. His dedication to education has benefitted students of The University of Montana's Environmental Studies Program and the greater population to whom he regularly imparts knowledge and vision about the ecosystems of his family ranch near Gold Creek. Dr. Hollenback has held leadership positions for the Governor's Rangeland Resources Executive Committee, the Montana Grazing Lands Conservation Initiative, the Deer Lodge Valley Conservation District and the Upper Clark Fork River Basin Remediation and Advisory Council. He was instrumental in forming the Watershed Restoration Coalition, a nonprofit that implements restoration projects on private lands in cooperation with public agencies.

Note from the Honoree: I would like to thank the Department of Environmental Studies, the College of Arts and Sciences, Faculty Senate, University Administration and the Montana Board of Regents and all of the University of Montana for conferring upon me the Honorary Doctor of Science Degree. I would like to thank Dan Spencer, Sarah Carvill and all those who were responsible for and worked so diligently to bring this about. What a tremendous surprise and honor to receive such a prestigious recognition. When I took over the family ranch at 17 years old, I knew I had a lot to learn so I contacted the Soil Conservation Service. One of the District Conservationist took me under his wing and was a mentor in getting me involved in Range, Forest and Water Management. I continued to learn by doing and getting help from others. By being on the various Boards and Committees, I learned how to work with others. Learning to listen and respect others even when we had differences of opinion- to work on the things we did agree on and to gain each other's respect. I've always tried to be available to share with others and give of my time to help where I could. I've always had the feeling that I needed to leave the beautiful resources in better condition than I found them. I am honored and humbled to be receiving this honorary Doctor of Science Degree. Thank You.

Matthew McCann, Doctor of Humane Letters

In addition to running his family's ranch in Harlem, Montana, Matt McCann served in the Montana Legislature from 1995-2002. He was appointed to five key legislative committees, including the House Finance Committee, Corrections Committee, Mental Health Subcommittee and the House Appropriations Committee as the vice chair. Always focused on the good of the State rather than personal achievement, he commonly worked across party lines to demonstrate his commitment to the value of higher education, as well as social services and conservation of natural resources. After completing his terms in the Legislature, he served on the Montana Board of Pardons and Parole from 2003-2005.

Note from the Honoree: I am humbled by this honor. In taking account of the people and circumstances surrounding me, I feel undeserving. For the better part of the day, I am a simple stockman so having the occasion to participate in a community event, meeting, or family function can take precedence. I appreciate people. I rely on family to keep my priorities straight. If I stray too far, an occasional pep talk from my wife and children will bring things into focus. Family matters most. I like being a team player. On occasion this can be difficult, though some of my most rewarding experiences have been from being a part of the greater good. It is important to contribute. I once served on a local committee in Blaine County. I was asked to replace my father who had passed away. I was 22 years old and intimidated. The gentleman sitting next to me had the floor for discussion but was interrupted. By the time the discussion was returned to him, he had fallen asleep. Rightfully so, he was 89 years old. The chair of the committee kindly allowed a brief recap of the issue for the now awake gentleman. I treasure kindness. I hope to continue to work for the betterment of Montana and its people. Thank you for this generous and humbling award.

← CLASS BANNERS →

The class banners which are displayed above the stage are part of the University's history. From 1898 until 1970 a class banner or flag was designed and constructed every year by members of the graduating class. After 1970 the tradition was discontinued. A group of seniors restored that tradition in 1993. The class of 2010 banner is displayed along with the banners of the reunion alumni classes of 1940, 1950 and 1960. This year's class banner was designed by Jenna Ness, Senior, French, and Tara Ness, Senior, Biology.
