Crippled Children Clinic To Be Held Wed. In Paducah

A clinic for crippled children will be held at the Broadway Methodist Church in Paducah Wednesday, November 19. Dr. J. A. Outland, county health officer, announced this morning.

The Kentucky Crippled Children's Commission, Louisville, twice each year has a local clinic in each congressional district in the state. Any child under 16 years of age who has a crippled condition or defect will be examined on this day by the Commission personnel.

Old cases brought to the clinic will be given a check-up. New cases will be given a thorough examination and receive recommendations for treatment, either surgery or other methods. A case history is also filed on new cases and a medical record begun. If hospitalization is necessary, there are four institutions in the state which cooperate with the Commission.

These semi-annual clinics for crippled children have been operating for the past 20 years. During this period records have been established for 121 cases from Calloway County. There are approximately 200 cases under observation in the county now. It is expected that close to 100 patients from this district will register at the clinic on Wednesday.

Dr. Outland announced that any one desiring transportation to the clinic in Paducah may contact the County Health Office in the Court House.

SACRED HALL NOW AVAILABLE — In an unprecedented change, wedding ceremonies will now be conducted in the sacred Memorial Hall of Meiji Shrine, Tokyo. Two employees of the Shrine put up a sign on the former Constitution Memorial Hall announcing the dramatic innovation.

Election Commission Can't Decide How To Draw Lots

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 12 (UP)—The Jefferson county election commission said today it will draw lots Wednesday, Nov. 19, to decide whether a Democrat or a Republican shall represent 38th district voters in the State House of Representatives.

Democrat Michael B. Gilligan and Republican Freeman I. Robinson tied for the post in the Nov. 4 election.

The commission met today and postponed action for one week. The commissioners said they had not decided the manner of drawing lots. Earlier, flipping a coin was suggested.

Kentucky Railway Commission O.K.'s Rate Increases

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 12 (UP)—The Kentucky Railway Commission today approved passenger rate increases for all intra-state routes, and authorized the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad to increase its parlor and sleeping car charges.

Regular intra-state rates were raised from 1.65 to 2.2 cents per mile for one way fares, and from 1.45 to 1.96 for round trips.

Parlor and sleeping rates for the C. & O. were raised from 3.3 to 3.5 cents per mile.

The commission said the increases were to compensate for increased operating costs.

Three Republicans Announce White House Aspirations

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 (UP)—The race for the 1948 Republican presidential nomination became a real wide open affair today with three candidates definitely in the running and at least one more expected in before convention time next June.

The list of avowed aspirants jumped to three when Gov. Earl Warren of California announced his willingness to become a "favorite son" candidate. Former Gov. Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota and Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio had previously announced their candidacies in that order.

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, the GOP's 1944 standard bearer, is expected to be in the race before the Republicans meet in Philadelphia next June 21 to pick their slate.

As of now, most political observers expect Taft and Dewey to go into the convention with the largest blocs of delegates. No one is counting the others out. Stassen already is conducting a whirlwind campaign.

Marryin' Sam Expects A Busy Sadie Hawkins Day Tomorrow At MSC

Dogpatch characters will rule the roost tomorrow on Murray State campus when the annual Sadie Hawkins Day is observed. Daisy Mae and her sister, spinsters will have from 9:00 o'clock in the morning until 5:00 p.m. to kotch "theirselves" a male.

Marryin' Sam will be available throughout the day with his special Dogpatch splicing tools. All students will dress in the Al Copp tradition.

A formal proclamation by the Student Organization follows:

PROCLAMATION:

Dad's Night At Murray High Attracts Over 350

The annual Dad's night, sponsored by the Parent Teachers Association of Murray High School, was attended by more than 350 dads, mothers and teachers last night.

Open house was held at the high school at 6:00 p.m. Each room in the building was open for inspection, and work of the students was on display. Hostesses were the home room teacher and the room mother. Each room also had a small bank for donations from the visitors which will be used to buy books for that particular room.

At 6:45 a chicken dinner was served in the gymnasium by the freshman class in home economics, under Mrs. Louise Cochran.

As the guests were assembling at the tables the junior band, led by Jerry Williams, played several numbers as four junior majorettes went through a drill routine. The junior chorus, under the direction of Miss Mary Elizabeth Roberts, also rendered several selections.

Mrs. Hubert Parker, president of P.T.A., said in her welcome address that she hoped all the dads were having a wonderful time at this meeting held in their honor. She also explained that the primary purpose of the organization was to promote the welfare of their children. The chairman said that the main project for the year would be to equip a proposed new lunch room.

The response was given by W. Z. Carter, superintendent of city schools, who expressed gratification at seeing such a large number present which indicated a growing interest in the school.

Mrs. N. P. Hutson, chairman of the membership committee, reported that the recent membership drive had been very successful. The organization now has 643 members, an increase of almost one hundred per cent, she said. Winners in the membership contest were the 11th and 12th grades who tied with 95 percent of parents enrolled. The 8th and 9th grades tied with 93 percent. Each of the four grades received a five dollar prize.

Mr. W. B. Moser, Mrs. W. Z. Carter, Miss Hazel Tarry and Miss Marie Skinner are the home room teachers in these grades, and followed by Ray Syndergaard, a member of Murray College faculty, delivered the main address of the evening on "Education for Peace."

He pointed out the regrettable fact that there is so much talk of war today when people should, instead, be concentrating on peace. He expressed the belief that the atomic bomb had been perfected a generation too soon—that the world was not yet ready for it. He also said that a recent survey of students in this country shows an earnest desire to obtain more information about Russia.

At the close of the meeting the women present sang "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" and the men responded with "Good Night Ladies."

The decorations were arranged by Mrs. Gingles Wallis, chairman of the social committee, and followed a Thanksgiving motif. The tables were adorned with fruit, autumn leaves, different colored chrysanthemums, and white lighted candles.

Seated at the speakers table were the P.T.A. executive council with their husbands. At the table directly to the left were the membership chairman, home room mothers and faculty.

Double Dipper Ice Cream Cone For 5c May Return Soon

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 14 (UP)—Kiddies, your double dipper of ice cream for a nickle may be back soon.

If it tastes a wee bit like peanuts on the first bite, try again. The second or third lick is guaranteed to taste like regular ice cream, although there won't be a drop of milk or cream in it. That's what a group of tasters agreed today.

A little sugar and flavor added will make an ice cream just as velvety and mouth-watering as the best drug store dish offered now, he says.

He has tried it in nearly all flavors and it particularly blends well with chocolate and caramel. It makes a nice chocolate milk drink, too, with a malt flavor without the malt.

The peanut milk has the protein of the regular milk and fat of milk and cream. The vitamins and minerals of milk and cream, he says, can be added as simply as they are to oleomargarine, a substitute for butter.

And the price is comparable, too. He says the new product may be produced about one-half as cheap as ordinary ice cream.

After the experiment is completed it will be turned over to the Dawson peanut firm.

The scientist hopes that the peanut milk may be produced in condensed form whereby the housewife may add water and flavor, stick it in the refrigerator and later come out with a delicious dish.

What the institute likes is that the produce may provide an extra market for the thousands of tons of peanuts produced in the southern state, where there is little dairying.

A large percentage of the cream used in ice cream manufacture in the South is shipped here from Wisconsin and New York.

The Southern Research Institute employs some 50 scientists who develop research problems for corporations throughout the South. Most of the problems concern development of new markets for the South's mineral and agricultural products.

Starks Speaks To Rotary Club On Labor Relations

Joe Ed Starks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Urban Starks, was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Rotary Club yesterday at noon at the Women's Club House. Starks spoke on labor relations, bringing out some past history and amusing personal experiences. His talk was enjoyed by the club.

Visiting Rotarians were Turly Stewart from Paris, Tenn., and Mr. Blalock from Clarksville, Tenn.

Members bringing guests were Van Barnett, L. E. Kerly, New York; Grove Wood James, Fred Wolntek; Harry Fenton, Carl Carnahan; Guy Billington, Charles Baugh; and Henry Mullins, Rev. George Bell of Trenton, Tenn.

Rev. Bell comes to Murray to take the place of Rev. Mullins who has been transferred to Union City, Tenn.

Vernon Hale was presented with a birthday cake with lighted candles.

Preston Ordway was brought in to the club as a new member.

A message of condolence that will be sent to Mrs. Ed Filbeck was read to the club. Rev. Henry Mullins offered a special prayer for Mr. Filbeck, who was a Rotary member.

A letter was also prepared to be sent to the Rotary club in Union City, Tenn., announcing to that club the coming of Rev. Henry Mullins to their city.

College Veterans Club To Sponsor "Freedom Train"

The Veterans Club at Murray State College is sponsoring a drive to obtain donations for the Freedom Train. Bill Presson, president of the organization, announced today.

The announcement was made to the student body at a recent chapel program after the Vets club decided at their regular meeting Monday night that someone here should take an active part in helping the starving Europeans.

Friendship boxes will be placed at various points on the campus late this afternoon to receive donations of foodstuffs, money, or clothing from college students or townpeople. The collected material will be stored at the college temporarily, until the stockpile grows too large.

The Friendship Train, originally started in California to collect food for the starving Europeans, has aroused a great deal of interest throughout the nation. A forthcoming announcement will tell when and where the Murray contributions will be loaded onto the train.

Presson said that plans have been made to contact every organized group on the campus to secure their cooperation in this drive. He also expressed a hope that one of the civic or social organizations in the city would take the initiative in furthering the drive in Murray proper and surrounding communities.

In the meantime, however, all donations from local residents will be gladly accepted at the college, Presson said.

Medical Society Begins Formation Of New Hospital Staff, Elects Officers

The annual meeting of the Calloway County Medical Society was held in the staff room of the Murray Hospital on Monday evening, November 10, 1947, with nine physicians present.

The program consisted of two films:

- "Cervicitis, Etiology and Treatment," loaned to the society by the Medical Film Guild, New York City, New York.
- "The Fight Against Cancer," loaned to the society by the Kentucky Division of the American Cancer Society.

The films were shown by Mrs. Dorothy Rowlett with college equipment.

Dr. J. A. Outland, delegate from the society to the 1947 meeting of the Kentucky State Medical Association, discussed the state meeting and brought the society up to date on the affairs of the profession at the state level.

Officers for the year 1948 were elected as follows: Dr. C. J. McDewitt, president; Dr. Ora K. Masterson, vice-president; Dr. J. A. Outland, secretary-treasurer; and Dr. A. D. Butterworth, delegate to the 1948 State Convention.

Following the election of officers,

LATE BULLETINS

Housecleaning Begins

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11 (UP)—President Truman's sweeping loyalty check on the Federal government's 2,000,000 civilian employees swung into high gear today.

The Civil Service Commission's loyalty review board—the court of last resort in the inquiry—met for the first time to begin laying down the procedures for the campaign to rid the Federal payroll of all Communists, Fascists and their fellow travelers.

Shooting Breaks Out

MARSEILLE, Nov. 14 (UP)—Shooting broke out again in jittery Marseille today, just before the Communist-dominated General Federation of Labor met to decide whether to order a general strike.

The headquarters of the Communist party was fired upon while Communist bigwigs were holding a meeting. No one was wounded and the army and police started an immediate investigation to find out who did the shooting.

Aid May Backfire

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 (UP)—Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D. Va., said today the United States must face the "danger" that aid to Europe might boomerang to Russia's benefit.

Byrd, a leader of the congressional economy bloc, said communists may yet gain domination over the very Western European nations which this country seeks to aid under the Marshall plan. In this event, he said, American resources and financial aid for industrial reconstruction would be turned squarely against our own interests.

"Free Riders" Investigation Urged

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 (UP)—More and more Congressmen today demanded investigation of wartime "free-riders," the shrewd operators in and out of government who grossed an estimated $450,000,000 in surething government bonds deals.

And a member of the Senate banking committee, John J. Sparkman, D. Ala., suggested that "perhaps there should be a law" to prevent such speculation in the future.

Kelly, also of Hutchinson, bought 67,000 of the wooden containers, and is offering them to veterans at 24 cents each through the American Legion. The PTA, A Great Force For The Good.

Those parents, teachers, and patrons who attended the Dad's Night of the Parent Teachers Association last night, we feel sure, answered the charges that Phillip Wylie made recently in an article, entitled "We Hate Our Children." Wylie contended that although the people of America professed to love their children, in reality they were neglecting the very things that would make a child grow into a responsible citizen.

Over three hundred attended the Dad's Night event last night, indicating a high interest that parents, teachers and others have in the education of our children. Several prizes were awarded to rooms having a high percentage of parent membership in the PTA. The PTA itself received two awards for increased membership.

The entire program was devoted to the children of the school.

With programs like these, parents and teachers alike are able to talk to one another, and discuss ways and means to provide the child with the things he needs. Shortcomings of parent, teacher, and child can be discovered, brought out into the bare light for inspection and correction. It is recognized that human beings have imperfections and by recognizing this fact, the ultimate goal can be reached more quickly and more easily.

We feel that the Parent-Teachers Association is a great force in the community because it provides a common meeting place for the two people that have so much to do with the education, and development of the children of the community.

Murray is answering the charges of Phillip Wylie in more ways than one. We are extending our school facilities and providing proper recreational facilities. Murray is doing its best to hold juvenile delinquency to a minimum.

WATCH THAT MUZZLE

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Most people will buy a car and never think of using it for a battering ram. The same people will buy a camera and never think of using it for anything but taking pictures. But put a gun in the hands of some folks during the hunting season and they will think of a hundred and one different uses for the weapon. They will use it for a vault, a paper fence, a stick to lean away from, or even a club to batter things. Whether the gun is loaded or not, or where the muzzle points, it is a black-veiled threat.

A small number of the 11,000,000 hunters will take to the fields and woods this fall, but they are the ones who will cause fatal accidents and give a black-veiled threat to the rest of the nation.

The National Rifle Association, through surveys conducted in past years, knows that they will point the gun muzzle at themselves or at others and then an accidental charge will bring tragedy.

Take the case of father and son in California last year. Junior tried clubbing a raccoon to death with the butt of his shotgun and the resultant discharge shot out his insides. Father then grabbed the dying son's gun and continued swatting the raccoon. The second barrel went off and mother had two funerals on her hands.

Both men were killed because of a careless, unwarred use of a weapon. Unlabeled for tragedies of this type can be eliminated by keeping a gun unloaded when not in use. Carrying it in "open action" until game is sighted. Keeping the muzzle pointed into the air or ground when carrying it. Never using it to help you over an obstacle. And, naturally, never using it as a club.

Remember to respect a sporting gun's potentialities at all times and see that the muzzle never points at anything but the game you are after.

THE BIBLE TODAY
 International Staff
 Sunday School Lesson

By LOUIE D. NEWTON, D.D.

SCRIPTURE: II Peter; Jude; Luke 2:40-52
 DEVOTIONAL READING: Matthew 5:1-16

Building Character
 Lesson for November 16, 1947

WE SHALL need to read carefully Second Peter if we are to profit most in the study of Sunday's lesson. Peter tells us:

"According as his divine power hath given us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue."

We may partake of; the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. That, I realize, is very difficult for us to understand, and yet it is within the grasp of every boy and girl, every man and woman, in all the world.

In addition to Second Peter, we are asked to read Jude and Luke 2:40-52. The passage in Luke tells how Jesus grew and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom; and the grace of God was upon him.

As Jesus Grew

WE HEAR a great deal today about juvenile delinquency. The question everywhere arises, What can we do to prevent juvenile delinquency?

We have the answer in Sunday's lesson. As Jesus grew in wisdom and stature and in favor with God and man, so can every youth in America grow into strong and beautiful manhood and womanhood.

The parents of Jesus, we are told, obeyed God in doing for the Child all that they were commanded to do.

The Love of God

"KEEP yourselves in the love of God," Jude 21. There is the formula for building Christian character.

This business of building Christian character is based on a formula—keeping within the circle of God's love.

It is just as essential to have the proper nourishment in building Christian character as in growing a fine ear of corn. Progress is not accidental. It is the result of right thinking, right behavior, right purpose. Only in the love of God can the young life find its nurture for Christian character.

Christian Mathematics

TURN again, if you will, to Second Peter, and read his mathematical formula by which Christian character is realized:

"Add to your faith virtue, and to virtue knowledge, and to knowledge temperance, and to temperance patience, and to patience godliness, and to godliness brotherly kindness, and to brotherly kindness charity. For if these things be in you, and abound, they will keep you from being brought to shame; for if any of these things shall be lacking, ye shall neither be fruitful nor fruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ."

Old-fashioned stuff, someone will cynically observe. Aye, old-fashioned it may seem, but only from this old-fashioned formula can character be built—Christian character.

And what is it that our needy, frightened world is asking for above everything else today? For the certitude of hope that is found only in hearts that are staid upon God.

We may smile at Peter's mathematics, but his formula is the only hope for United Nations, the only hope for world peace, the only hope for civilization.

Jude's Benediction

YOU have read, I hope, the brief Book of Jude, only 25 verses. You have followed his pungent, cogent argument. You have followed his exhortation. And now you come to his benediction—a very fitting climax for Sunday's lesson:

"Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and evermore. Amen."

As you sit in your living room, or on the train, or in the plane, or in the hotel, or at the hospital, or wherever you may be, reading these lines, remember this—The need of America today is more Christian character in the home, factory, store, bank, mill, field, school room, in the meeting house.

God grant that we may heed the admonition of the Scripture passages above cited, and think on our ways while it is yet day. The night cometh apace.

BUILDING FROM THE GROUND UP

THE alert home builder will keep watch over things as his house goes up. Here are some salient points to be checked. Equally important, before actual building begins, are neighborhood, services such as water, sewers, gas and electricity and nature of the soil.

BUILD your house on a firm foundation, else it will sag. Waterproofing prevents dampness from seeping through.

LEFT: PROPER insulation can cut fuel bill. Mineral wool is being used here. Government reports this type of insulation is desirable since it resists fire, moisture, short circuits, termites, vermin and decay.

HANGING from the rafters is one way to test lumber and the firmness of framework. Beams should not bend, framework should not quiver or shake.

RIGHT: ENTRANCE doorways and interior doors should not be too narrow. They should be large enough to permit passage of "baby carriages or your furniture" when you move in. Doors should swing easily on their hinges.

FOUNDATION plantings and lawns will not flourish in heavy soil from the cellar excavation. A good depth of topsoil must be provided to assure vigorous growth.

Jimmy Durante Outranks Bob Hope In College Poll

COLLEGEVILLE, Ind., Nov. 13 (UP)—Four hundred college students would rather talk gravely-voiced Jimmy Durante home to meet their folks than invite Bob Hope to tell them the kind of jokes he uses on his radio show.

The students, questioned in the first of 30 weekly radio acceptance polls conducted by St. Joseph's of Indiana said they would like to have Edgar Bergen step into their parlors, but he could leave Charlie McCarthy at home.

They said Jack Benny was their fifth favorite performer on his own show. On the Fibber McGee and Molly program, Mollie ranked fourth and Fibber eighth among the performers.

The Durante show received top rating among the nation's comedy programs, according to the survey, conducted to determine the degree of good taste shown by the performers.

Hope was at the bottom of the list.

Students at 40 colleges and universities participated in the survey. As machinery is set up in other localities, the weekly ratings of radio entertainers is expected to be based on more than 1,000 student ballots cast at all colleges.

Directions asked the critics during the first week of listening to "Base your scoring of each personality on this simple premise: Would a stranger be welcome in your home by all members of your family if he or she said the same things as the radio artist is saying?"

No comedy program audited during the opening week of Oct. 12 was found to be offensive.

The students rated the programs according to a total of five classifications—"Highly Acceptable, Acceptable, Barely Acceptable, Unacceptable or Offensive." In addition, each personality on the show was given a point rating under a five-point system or points ranging from 100 through zero to minus 100.

This individual stars in some cases received a "Highly Acceptable" rating, although the show 25% whole was considered only "Acceptable."

Jack Benny, with his 250-point, or acceptable score ranked behind co-performers Dennis Day, Don Wilson, Rochester and Maly Livingston. George Burns and Gracie Allen played second fiddle to Cary Grant.

Colquhoun, George Jessel and Vera Vague. All were termed "barely acceptable," however.

CHOCOLATE CUSTARD BREAD PUDDING

2 squares (2 ounces) unsweetened chocolate
1 quart bottled milk, scalded
2 cups water, scalded
2 eggs
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1/4 teaspoon meringue
24 tablespoons melted butter or fortified margarine

Put chocolate in milk, bring to scalding point, then beat until smooth. Add bread crumbs to milk mixture. Beat eggs slightly, add sugar and salt; mix milk mixture, vanilla, nutmeg, and butter. Pour into greased 1 1/2 quart baking dish, set in pan of warm water; bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 1 1/2 hours, or until a silver knife inserted in center comes out clean. Serve 6 to 8. For individual custards: Turn into 8 greased custard cups; bake as directed for 45 to 50 minutes.

Timely Food Tip:

A fish casserole like the one in today's menu is an excellent alternate for meat. Two of its major ingredients — tuna fish and milk — are sources of good-quality protein. Spinach is a good vegetable to serve with this dish because it is high in iron — a mineral in which tuna fish and milk are low.

By MARGARETTA BRUCKER

Deborah Parrish and her young sister Nan live in Little Harbor, a summer resort. Deborah works in the post office. Nan in a fashionable gown shop, where she's learning to be a model with the hope of getting a job in Chicago later. Because of a humiliating experience a year ago, when a handsome summer visitor, Craig Benedict, won Deborah's love and then dropped her, she's wary of young men from the summer colony. However, when Geoffrey Harriman, rich newcomer, becomes attentive, she falls in love with him. Fred Craven, a rejected beau who works with her in the post office, becomes jealous. Then she learns that Geoff is married. While in college, he married a show girl named Rosetta because he felt responsible for an automobile accident in which she was crippled, but he has never lived with her. He now plans to ask her for a divorce for he's in love with Deborah. Deborah feels she should stop seeing him, but she goes for a drive with him one evening. When they're seen by Fred, she fears trouble. That night, Rosetta unexpectedly arrives. The next morning, Deborah substitutes for a model in a style show at the shop where Nan works. As she enters the show room, she sees Rosetta in the group of spectators.

CHAPTER XXV

DEBORAH, seeing Rosetta at close range for the first time, saw that her face, though beautiful, was hard. Rosetta was not at all the pathetic person she had pictured. Her blue eyes were cold and faintly antagonistic.

For an instant, Deborah wondered whether the other girl knew who she was—knew of her friendship with Geoff. But she goes on: "How could I know?"

Meanwhile, Mrs. Taggart was hovering about Deborah, pointing out to the group of women the features of the dress being displayed. Margot Marvin spoke up. "Twenty, you say? And this is an original?"

"Certainly." "Do you like it, Marianne?" Mrs. Marvin asked her daughter, who was slouched in an armchair beside her. "Rather!" Marianne replied. "Rosetta said, 'I love it, and it's just my size.'"

Margot Marvin laughed. "You want it, Rosetta, but she won't. What about that, Mrs. Taggart?" Mrs. Taggart smiled apologetically. "I'm afraid the dress is not for showing at the Island Club."

Nancy Holmes SUGGESTS

TOM TURKEY is unquestionably the star of any Thanksgiving feast, but we maintain it would be a poor performance without an equally good supporting cast. So make certain that your vegetables are selected and prepared with the same care as the handsome bird. Dessert, too, must measure up and while pumpkin pie is traditional, Nancy Holmes of the Best Foods consumer kitchens, suggests Pumpkin Puff as a change. And you'll agree that it's a very delicious ending for this important occasion.

Pumpkin Puff

1 1/2 cups flour
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 cup nuts
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 cups pumpkin
1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 cup chopped dates
1/2 cup nuts
1/2 cup vitaminized margarine
1 cup sugar
2 eggs

Sift, measure flour and resift with spices, salt and baking powder. Stir in dates and nuts. Cream vitaminized margarine, sugar and eggs until very light. Combine two mixtures and add pumpkin; mix lightly. Turn into well greased 2 quart mold. Cover and steam 2 hours. Unmold onto serving plate. Garnish with strips of date. Serve with sweetened spiced whipped cream—2 tablespoons sugar and 1 teaspoon mixed spices added to 1 cup whipping cream—Puffing can be restamed. Yield: 8-12 servings.

In line with the President's campaign to save food and eat less meat, thousands of Americans have turned to spaghetti as a main dish. So the National Macaroni Institute has started a nation-wide campaign to teach the correct manner of getting the long strands from plate to mouth, which is NOT the way Kay Buckley, of New York City, does it.
