Come gather 'round people wherever you roam and admit that the waters around you have grown And accept it that soon you'll be drenched to the bone. if your time to you is worth savin'

Then you better start swimmin' or you'll sink like a stone for the times they are a-changin'.

The times they are a-changin

Come writers and critics who prophesiz with your pen and keep your eyes wide the chance won't come again And don't speak too soon for the wheel's still in spin and there's no tellin' who that it's namin'.

For the loser now will be later to win for the times they are a-changin'.

Come senators, congressmen please heed the call bon't stand in the boorway bon't block up the half For he that gets hurt will be he who has stalled there's a battle outside and it is ragin'.

It'll soon shake your windows and rattle your walls for the times they are a-changin'.

Come mothers and fathers throughout the land and don't criticize what you can't understand. Your sons and your daughters are beyond your command your old road is rapidly agin'.

Please get out of the new one if you can't lend your hand for the times they are a-changin'.

The line it is drawn the curse it is cast the slow one now will later be fast. As the present now will later be past the order is rapidly fadin'.

And the first one now will later be last for the times they are a-changin'.
