FLYING LESSONS
Suzanne Tidwell
Poetry

I went to the pier last night, sat in the corner where we always sat.
I thought the moon was always full here - I remember it always full but now there's a flat edge on the left side and the trees on the island in the bay are further away tonight and very dim,
not the magic kingdom we saw before.
I can't seem to remember how we dreamt of flying -
I don't fly in my dreams anymore
