

Just some of the benefits:

Network

and meet other talented artists & practitioners

Discover

new approaches to conceptual and practical production

Share

your voice on challenging debates

Exhibit

your work at a public-facing event

Reward

Counts as extra-curricular activity for the 'Lincoln Award'

If you would like to be considered please send a brief statement (about 500 words should do it) outlining why we should pick you, what your key skills are, what would you bring to the project and what you expect to get out of the experience.

We also require a short CV (max 1-page) highlighting any experience you have in collaborative working, any production skills you have, previous projects you have been involved with and any extra-curricular activities you have undertaken. Email this to the address above.

We will be holding an informal briefing on the project for all who may wish to take part but want to find out a little more information on Wednesday 19th March, 15.00 in room MC2113B (2nd floor MHT).
