CHAPTER I

INTRODUCTION

A. Background of the Problem

Language is a tool of communication and language is the vehicle to make relationship among people. Without language, it is impossible for everyone to make interaction each other. According to Setiyadi, “language is a system for the expression of meaning”.¹ Moreover, Siahaan said “language is a set rules, which is used as a tool of communication. It is used to communicate ideas, feelings, and negotiating with others”.² It means that language is very important in human life, language cannot be separated from human because they use it as the way of their communication for express ideas, thought, opinions and feeling. People can fulfill their needs of life by communication with each other and people can transfer knowledge using language. We can not express our ideas or opinions if we do not know the language.

Allah SWT, in holy Qur'an said about good communication in surah An Nisa/4:63:

أُولَئِكَ الَّذِينَ يَعْلَمُ اللَّهُ مَا فِي قُلُوبِهِمْ فَأَعْرِضْ عَنْهُمْ وَعِظْهُمْ وَقُلْ لَهُمْ فِي أَنْفُسِهِمْ قَوْلًا بَلِيغًا (٦٣)

² Sanggam siahaan, Issue In Linguistic, (Yogyakarta: Graha Ilmu Press, 2008), p.185.

“Those are the ones of whom Allah knows what is their hearts, so turn away from them but admonish them and speak to them a far-reaching word”. (An Nisa/4:63)³

This verse told about how to warn a community with good communication. The verse can be interpreted as fluent and precising talking, clear interoperating, and able to inform the message well. Besides that, by domain it touched, it can be called as effective speaking.

English has many functions, one of them as stated by school based curriculum that English as a means of communication for the students to develop science, technology, culture and art, and the final objective of teaching and learning process is that the students are expected to master the four skills of language: listening, speaking, reading, and writing⁴. Teaching and learning will be succeed if it is supported by some factors such things as the method that is used in teaching English, completeness of teaching facilitation, interesting media, and condition of school environment. If we talk about language we have to ability the skill of languages itself, one of the skill is speaking.

Speaking is one of the central elements from the four basic skills in learning foreign language besides writing, reading, and listening. By speaking, people can interact with others in social interaction in order to get the information from this process.⁵ Speaking is very important because it is one of the English skill that mostly becomes the main purpose why so many people get curious of learning English. It is no doubt to say that learning English in order to be able to communicate is simply not easy. The students can know how to express their ideas in their mind or how to deliver their ideas in English using spoken language. They are many activities that can be used to transfer materials well to the student in teaching speaking. One of the activities is called Riddle Game.

Riddle is included a part of vocabulary games, because Riddle has criteria of game, there is sense of excitement about words. The Riddle games need more ingenuity to solving the Riddle which in playing words formed. And then, Riddle can motivate someone become more interest to play. It has rule to play too. Therefore, Riddle is part of games. Brassell said, “A Riddle is a statement or question or phrase having a double or veiled meaning, put forth as a puzzle to be solved”.⁶ According to Hapsari, some advantages of riddle game are: Riddle game can increase the students’ interest to learning speaking, The students’ can increase their vocabulary using riddle game, etc.⁷

Based on preliminary research done in SMP N 2 Palas, it was found that teaching and learning speaking through Riddle game is applied there. From the interview it was found that many students at eighth grade experienced had difficulty in speaking such as the students are lack of speaking practice.⁸

Speaking skill is taught to the students in order to be able to use English in the real communication. But based on the preliminary research that was conducted while doing interview the English teacher in SMP N 2 Palas South Lampung, who is she teaching there (Mrs. Nancy). She said that for many students speaking is also difficult to be mastered.

Based on the data above, the total number of students at the eighth grade of SMP Negeri 2 Palas South Lampung are 97 students and it is divided into 3 classes. The students' speaking score in SMP Negeri 2 Palas South Lampung is still low which only 46,00% or only 45 of 97 students. It can be seen that speaking score in SMP Negeri 2 Palas South Lampung (See Appendix 6). In this case, the researcher found the speaking ability of 52 or 54.00% students of eighth grade in SMP Negeri 2 Palas South Lampung is still low. Students get difficulties in speaking English words correctly. According to Brown, for speaking skill there are at least are five criteria to assess speaking skill, they are pronunciation, fluency, grammar, vocabulary and comprehension. He said that speaking score of students is poor if the students get 45-64 (See Appendix 7). Based on the criteria above the researcher concludes that only a few students can reach the excellent score and the most of them still low.

Based on the condition above, in this research the researcher focuses on Teaching Learning Speaking through Riddle Game in at the second semester of the eighth grade student of SMP N 2 Palas South Lampung. The researcher decided to choose the subject of SMP N 2 Palas South Lampung, because this school is completed with good facilities for supporting speaking skill. And the other reason the researcher does the research because can get the larger knowledge and experience about how to teach and learn speaking English through Riddle Game, especially to teach second semester of the eighth grade students of junior high school.

There are some previous research about Teaching speaking as follow firstly Purwita at the Pamalang with the title of the research was development of Audio-Lingual Teaching as an alternative method in teaching speaking an action research given to the first year students of SMP N 2 Pemalang in he academic year 2006/2007. The result of the researcher shows that the developed Using Audio-lingual teaching method to teach speaking to first year student of junior high school was very good. It was supported by the higher scores gained by the students who have been taught using Audio-lingual teaching method.⁹

The Second is Iin discussed about using board game towards students' speaking ability.¹⁰ The research showed that difference between the average of student's score before they were using board game 64% difficult to speak English well and after they are using board game, there is improvement of students' speaking ability just only 35% students difficult to speak English well it could be said that there is a significant influence of using board game towards students' speaking ability.

Third previous research that had been done by Liza discussed about using relatively game towards students' speaking ability. The research showed that difference between the average of student's score before they were using relatively game (14,6%) And after they are using relatively game (68,4%). It can be concluded that the relatively game is an effective and efficient in teaching speaking.¹¹

Based on discussion of previous study, it can be concluded that there is a significant difference of this research for previous ones. The difference lies on topic

CHAPTER II REVIEW OF RELATED LITERATURE

A. Concept of Teaching Learning English as a Foreign Language

English as an International language that has large influence to human life. English has been acknowledged by most countries in the world as an International language. Consequently, English has to be used in International communication, for general as well as specific needs. Therefore people in countries where English used as a foreign language have to learn it. Geoffrey, et. al. States “English as a foreign language is taught in schools, often widely, but it does not play an essential role in national or social life.¹ It means that the student who learns English as a foreign language should have limited time to use their English in daily activity.

According to Setiyadi, English is really foreign language for language learner in Indonesia, because in Indonesia it is learned only at school and people do not speak the language in the society.² It is expected that the students should have the ability or knowledge of English which can be used for communication.

In Indonesia, English is taught as a foreign language. Therefore, English is not used for daily communication. In many sources, especially in internet source, explained that English as first foreign language initiative meant to promote the use of the

² Ag Bambang Setiyadi, Teaching English as Foreign Language, (Yogyakarta: Graha Ilmu, 2006), p. 22.

English language as first foreign language in all the countries around the world. It means that the English is a language which use by all of the word as the first foreign language to communicate.

Considering this fact, and remembering in the importance of English, teaching as a foreign language should be put as one of the first priority. This way will be introduced not only something new about the language to student but also about its culture. Then, to achieve the goal of English teaching needs skilful, creative and innovative teachers teaching media and another facility which can support achieving the goal. In addition, the teaching should be also interesting, appropriate for student. Teaching is a distinct skill. The teachers should be very energetic- who make the students feel excited about learning. So a teacher will inspire and keep the students motivation strong. Learning English using the Mastery can make the students learns much faster and will enjoy learning more.

Teacher need to consider how close they should be to the students they are working with. The most important part is that the teacher should be able to manage classroom effectively and handle any situations in the class.³ First of all they are usually exposed to language which they are more or less understand even if they cannot produce the same language spontaneously themselves. Secondly, they are motivated to learn the language in order to be able to communicate. Finally, they have the opportunities to use the language they are learning, thus giving hem chance to flex their linguistics muscle-and check their own progress and abilities.

One significant factor that influences most of the successes in teaching and learning are teachers. Teachers have to be able to guide the students into an understanding of the lesson. They have to find the way how to make the students enjoy the lesson. The students' willingness to study is fragile; they can lose their spirit and willingness to study easily if the teachers are dull or uninteresting.

Harmer states in his book, one of main tasks for teacher is to provoke interest and involvement in the subject even when the students are not initially interested in it. It is by their choice of topic, activity and linguistics content that they may be able to turn a class around. It is by class attitude by their participation, they conscientiousness, their humor and their seriousness that they may influence he students. It is by their own behaviour and enthusiasm that they may inspire.⁴

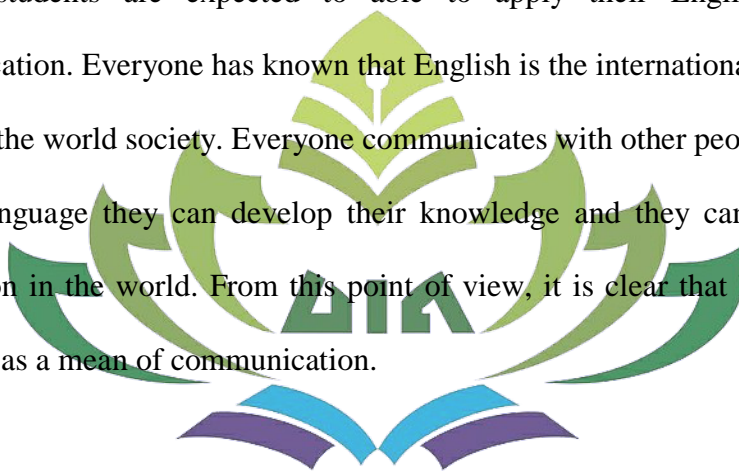

It is clear that teachers also have great effects in the process of learning. The better the teacher teach the easier the students will understand. It is clear that the purpose of teaching learning English as foreign language is to make the students master the language. To make that happen, the students must actively involved in the teaching learning process and do a lot of practices. The teacher also should be managing the class in a good way. The teacher should be creative in teaching, so the students will not feel bored or lose eagerness to learn.

The objective in teaching learning English as a foreign language is to increase students' ability in four language skills, namely listening, speaking, reading, and writing. And the purpose of the foreign language to develop the students' skills by understanding of listening, speaking, reading, and writing, while giving insight into the culture of which the language is part.

Brown states “Teaching is showing or helping someone to learn how to do something, providing with knowledge, and causing to know or understand”.⁵ It means that teaching is a process that should be done by teacher based on the experience, knowledge and material preparation the aim of teaching can be reached. By teaching English, students are expected to able to apply their English language for communication. Everyone has known that English is the international language which is used in the world society. Everyone communicates with other people by using it, so by this language they can develop their knowledge and they can follow the new information in the world. From this point of view, it is clear that how important of English is as a mean of communication.

B. Speaking

1. Concept of Speaking

Speaking is the important skill which is used in daily life communication to convey information, and its primary purpose is to establish and maintain social relations. In addition, Siahaan states that speaking is the spoken productive skill. It is the skill of speaker to communicate information to a listener or a group of listeners.⁶ According to Brown, speaking skill is the ability to use the language in oral form to show what are in mind.⁷ It can be interpreted that Speaking is a way to communicate with others, to share information, express idea, feeling, emotions to other person or give an explanation or to ask a question for someone.

⁵ H. Douglas Brown, Principle of Language Learning and Teaching, (New York: Prentice Hall Regents, Third Edition, 1994), p.7.

In other words, it can be said that speaking is expressing ideas, opinions or feelings to another person in words or sounds of articulation in order to inform, to persuade, and to entertain.

According to Thornbury, speaking is an act of producing words. Speaking is so much part of daily life that we take it for granted. The average person produces tens of thousands of words a day, although some people may produce even more than that.⁸ It means speaking is one effective way to interact and communicate among people in social life.

People usually speak languages they master in daily use. For example, Indonesian people when they speak with their family. When they know more than one language, they may use more languages in their conversation, for example in the school and in the office. People use more than one language that occurs in situation of social context, which is a situation where they learn a second language in their community. Allah SWT in holy Qur'an said about speak in sura Ali Imran/3 :46;

وَيُكَلِّمُ النَّاسَ فِي الْمَهْدِ وَكَهْلًا وَمِنَ الصَّالِحِينَ (آل عمران: ٤٦)

⁷ Brown, Op. Cit., p.149.

⁸ Scott Thornbury, How to Teach Speaking, (Kuala Lumpur : Longman, 2005), p.1-2.

“And he will speak to the people in the cradle and adulthood, and will be one of the righteous.”⁹

From the surah Ali Imran verse 46, it can be said where Allah wills to protect a person from accusation and he makes the mute tongue of a baby speak. From the explanation about it, it can be concluded that speaking is a productive skill used by someone in daily life for communication, an act of producing words, which is communicating the speech sound for expressing and conveying a message or ideas to build communication to a listener or a group of listeners.

2. Elements of Speaking

The ability to speak fluently presupposes not only knowledge of language features, but also the ability to process information and language “on the spot”. Harmer says, the ability to speak in English needs the elements necessary for the spoken production as follows:

a) Language Features

1. Connected Speech: connected speech is effective. Speakers of English need to be able not only to produce the individual phonemes of speaking but also the use of fluent connected speech. In connected speech sounds are modified, omitted, added or weakened.

⁹ Al-Qur'an 3 Bahasa: Arab, Indonesia, Inggris, (Depok: Al-Huda Kelompok Gema Insani) Ali Imran/3: 46, p.97.

2. Expressive Device: Native speaker of English change the pitch and stress of particular part of utterance, vary volume and speed and show by other physical and non-verbal means how they are feeling (especially in face to face interaction).
3. Lexis and grammar: teacher should therefore supply a variety of phrase for different function such as agreeing to disagreeing, expressing surprise, shock or approval.
4. Negotiation language: effective speaking benefits from the negotiator language we use to seek clarification and show the structure of what we are saying. We often need to ask for clarification when we are listening to someone else talks and it is very crucial for students.

b) Mental/ Social Processing.

1. Language processing: effective speaker need to be able to process language in their own heads and put it into coherent order so that it comes out in forms that are not only comprehensible, but also every convey the meanings that are intended, language processing involves the retrieval of words and their assembly into syntactically and propositionally appropriate sequence.
2. Interacting with other: effective speaking also involves a good deal of listening, and understanding of how the other participants are feeling, and knowledge of how linguistically to take turns of allow others to do so.

3. (on the spot) Information processing: quite apart from our response to others feelings, we also need to be able to process the information they tell us at the moment we get it.¹⁰

Based on the explanation above, it is necessary that the participant processes knowledge of language features, and the ability to process information and language on the spot. Language features involve four areas: connected speech, expressive devices, lexis and grammar, and negotiation language. Supposing the speaker processes these language features, processing skills, mental/social processing, will help him or her to achieve successful communication.

It can be said that speaking is a productive skill in which the speaker produces and uses the language by expressing a sequence of ideas and at the time she/he tries to get idea or the message across. In presenting something, students also need to pay attention about connected speech, lexis and grammar, confidence and so on, therefore what did the students present can be understood by the other students. In this case, there is a process of giving message and at the same time; there is a process of understanding the message of the first speaker.

¹⁰*Ibid*, pp. 269-271.

C. Teaching Speaking

1. Concept of Teaching

Teaching is the systematic activity which includes many components. Every component cannot be separated, but it has to be run together dependently and continually. For the reason, it is necessary for having a good management in teaching. Teaching is about the ‘transmission’ of knowledge from teacher to student.¹¹ It means that teaching is not only about sharing teacher’s knowledge and material but also sharing about experience.

Then Brown states that teaching is guiding and facilitating learning, enabling learner to learn, setting the conditions for learning. Your understanding of how the learner learns will determine your philosophy of education, your teaching style, your approach, method, and classroom technique.¹² In other words, Teaching is the way we guide our students, we give a facility and our way to make a good condition in learning process.

From the theories purposed by some experts above, it can be concluded that teaching is an activity that make our students have a new knowledge, experience and also make our students know about how to do something. In teaching, teacher has to guide their students, give a facility, and also make a good condition in learning process.

¹¹ Ibid, p.56.

¹² Brown, Op. Cit, p.8.

2. Concept of Teaching Speaking

The teaching of speaking skill is also important due to the large number of students who want to study English in order to be able to use English for communicative purposes. In teaching speaking teacher must make the conditional class and know the concept of speaking, the element of the sound for instance phonemes. It is important for teachers to pronounce correctly since they should be good models for their students.

Thornbury suggests that the teaching of speaking depends on there being a classroom culture of speaking, and that classrooms need to become ‘talking classrooms’.¹³ In other words, students will be much more confident speakers and their speaking abilities will improve if this kind of speaking activations a regular feature of lessons.

Harmer states that there are three reasons for teaching speaking, they are as follows:

1. Speaking activities provide rehearsal opportunities-chances to practice real life speaking in the safety of the classroom.
2. Speaking tasks in which students try to use any or all of the language they know provide feedback for both teacher and students.
3. The more students have opportunities to activate the various elements of language.¹⁴

¹³ Thornbury, Op.Cit. p.123

¹⁴Jeremy Harmer, How to Teach English,(London : Longman, 2007), p.123

Teaching speaking means teaching how to use language for communication, for transferring ideas, thought or even feelings to other people. The goal of teaching speaking skill is to communicate efficiently. Students should be able to make themselves understood, using their current proficiency to the fullest. They should try to avoid confusion in the message due to faulty pronunciation, grammar, or vocabulary and to achieve the social and cultural rules that apply in each communication situation.

3. Teacher's Problems in Teaching Speaking

Speaking is one important skill in English as a foreign language. There are some problem in teaching speaking, according to Thornbury, there are some problems in learning speaking, they are knowledge factor is the learner does not yet know aspect of language the enables production. They are lack of knowledge of the language and lack of practice interactive speaking itself. And then skill factors is the learners has known about aspect of language, but because they are rarely practicing speaking English, thus their skills are sufficient to ensure fluency.¹⁵ The completeness understanding of problem in teaching speaking should be known by the teacher. The factor is an institutional context that puts English as second or foreign language in Nation such as:

1. Incomplete English lab
2. Lack of hours learning English inside and outside the classroom

¹⁵ Thornbury, Op.Cit. p.123

3. No partner to speak English outside school
4. Less interesting teaching method used.¹⁶

Another opinion, according to Jdavisrites, it is the factors students activities in the classroom problem make the difficulties of teaching speaking as follows:

1. Students become overly dependent on teacher
2. Persistent use of first-language
3. Students is defiant, or distracting of others
4. Student “hijack lesson” the lesson doesn’t go where you want it to.
5. Personalities between students clash
6. Students unclear what to do, or do the wrong thing
7. Students are bored inattentive or unmotivated
8. Strong students dominance
9. Students are unprepared
10. Tardiness.¹⁷

Based on the problem above, it suggest to the teacher to choose the suitable method. Problem in teaching speaking are complex. It is not only related with the students’ factors but also about context outside. The points of those problems are related with condition of the students.

It can be concluded that the teacher problems are incomplete English lab, less interesting teaching method used, students become overly dependent on teacher, persistent use of first-language, student “hijack lesson” the lesson doesn’t go where you want it to.

D. Learning Speaking

1. Concept of Learning

Learning is the process or business conducted by someone to obtain knowledge or skills of which have been studied. Learning is a process of change from not knowing to knowing. According to Brown, learning is acquiring or getting of knowledge of a subject or a skill by study, experience, or instruction.¹⁸ It is a relatively permanent change in a behavioural tendency and the result of reinforced practice. It means that learning is about getting knowledge from study, from experience, or instruction.

According to Lefancois, Learning can be defined as changes in behaviour. This change occurs as a consequence of experience in some specific situation. The change brought about by developing a new skill, understanding a scientific law, and attitude. The change is not merely incidental or natural in the way the human appearance change as people get older.¹⁹ it can be said that learning will give many benefits that we can have, which give change something that is better than before such as to the students that make students improve their knowledge, skill, and also their attitude.

¹⁸ H. Douglas Brown, The Principle of Language Learning and Teaching, (San Francisco : Longman ,2007), p.7.

¹⁹ Guy Lefancois, Psychology for Teaching, (California : Wadsworth publishing company, 1972), p.8.

According to the theories above, it can be concluded that learning is the process of the students' understanding and mastering the lesson that the teacher gives to them. In addition, learning can also give a change to the students such as developing a new skill, understanding a scientific law, and attitude.

2. Concept of Learning Speaking

Learning English Speaking must be focused on many aspects. There are a number of components of speaking concerned with grammar, vocabulary, pronunciation and fluency. The descriptions are as follows:

a. Pronunciation

Pronunciation is the way in which a language is spoken. In learning process teachers need to sure that their students can be understood when they speak. The student needs to be able to say what they want to say.

b. Grammar

Grammar is partly the study of what form or structures are possible in a language. Traditionally grammar has been concerned almost exclusively with analysis at the level of the sentences.

c. Vocabulary

Vocabulary is total number of word that makes up a language. Those words are used in speaking. Vocabulary means the appropriate diction which is used in communication. Vocabulary refers to the selection of words that suitable with content.

d. Fluency

Fluency is the ability to process language easily and quality or condition of person to speak a language easily and well. Fluency is the smoothness of flow with which sounds, syllables, words and phrases are joined together when speaking. Brumfit in Nation sees fluency as the maximal effective operation of the language system so far acquired by the students. Besides that it refers to the one who express a language quickly and easily without any difficulty.²⁰

It can be concluded that in learning speaking process instead of concerning to the components of speaking, and the student's motivation and interest are very needed to make process of their understanding is easily. The goal of someone to learns English because they can be able to use the foreign language with real people in communication.

3. Students' Problems in Learning Speaking

In order to know clearly about the problems in learning speaking that students' may have problems. They are included:

- a. Inhibition. Unlike reading, writing and listening activities, speaking requires some degree of real time exposure to an audience learners are often inhibited about trying to say things in a foreign language in the classroom worried about making mistakes, fearful of criticism or losing face, or simply shy of the attention that their speech attracts.

- b. Nothing to say. Even if they are not inhibited, you often hear learners complain that they cannot think of anything to say; they have no motive to express themselves beyond the guilty feeling that they should that they should be speaking.
- c. Low or uneven participation. Only one participant can talk at a time if he or she is to be heard; and in a large group this means that each one will have only very little talking time. This problem is compounded by the tendency of some learners to dominate, while others speak very little or not at all.
- d. Mother-tongue use. In classes where all, or a number of, the learners share the same mother tongue, they may tend to use; because it is easier, because it feels unnatural to speak to one another in a foreign language, and because they feel less' exposed if they are speaking their mother tongue. If they are talking in small groups it can be quite difficult to get some classes-particularly the less disciplined or motivated ones to keep to the target language.²¹

Based on the problems above, it can be concluded that students' problems in learning speaking above are very difficult to solve. Those reasons occurred because the learners are not native speaker or they are foreign learner, when they learn an English lesson the harder and ability to know have to rich. But this case have often occurs because the base of the learner is low, such as inhibition, low or uneven participation and mother tongue.

4. Concept of Game

Game gives fun element for students in teaching and learning process. In addition, Agoestyowaty says that using game in a learning environment will not only change the dynamic of the class, but it also rejuvenates student and helps the brain to learn more effectively.²² It means that using game in learning process will make students learn more effectively.

Game in language learning will make students fun in learning process, Maley says, “Playing games is a vital and natural part of growing up and learning. Through games the children can have experiment, discover, and interact with their environment and games add variation to lesson and increase motivation by a providing plausible incentive to use the target language.²³ Its means that by playing games in learning process the students a fun filled and relaxing in class.

According to the theory above, it can be concluded that game is an activity with joy element that has aim and rules. Game can make students more comfortable and feel enjoyable in class because in a game there is fun element and make explore their brain to learn more affectively in learning process.

1. Concept of Riddle Game

Bartl said that Riddle is a guessing game that can be used to encourage students' concentration, patience and interests in learning English.²⁴ It means that Riddle is a game that can be used to teach students in learning English. Collis states that "Riddle is a fun way to enjoy English and to learn it at the same time. Because of the quirky humour and illustrations, native speakers of English can also laugh at the Riddle, though many will already be familiar."²⁵ Riddle also fosters a sense of excitement about words and motivates students to be interested in playing while learning.

In addition, Mardan states that "A riddle is generally a question devised so as to require clever or 3 unexpected thinking for its answer."²⁶ Riddle game requires more ingenuity and critical thinking to solve it. According to Zipke riddle is a question that turns into a joke because Riddle have puzzling question and the answer is surprising and unpredictable.²⁷

In addition, Nachtigal states Riddle are excellent ESL/EFL tools because they require students to practice a variety of language skills in order to find a solution. Riddle require higher level critical thinking skills, which are often underused in language learning, especially in the early stages of language acquisition where a significant amount of time is devoted to memorization and repetition.²⁸

From the explanation above it can be concluded that Riddle games is a question, a puzzle, a phrase or statement devised to get unexpected answer. Riddle game can help those who play to arouse their self confidence, more creatively and decrease the anxiety from acquiring the language. By using Riddle games the students will be able to learn the target language unconsciously and they learnt some new words without any stress on their feeling.

Example of the Riddle:

- 1) Which letters can be found in every day of the week? Answer: D, A, Y
- 2) What can you catch but not throw? Answer : A cold
- 3) What goes up and down stairs without moving? Answer : Carpet
- 4) What goes around the world and stays in a corner? Answer : A stamp
- 5) What kind of room has no windows or doors? Answer : A mushroom
- 6) You answer me, although I never ask you questions. What am I? Answer : A telephone
- 7) What has six legs and two heads? Answer: A horse and rider
- 8) Only two backbones and thousands of ribs, what is it? Answer: Railroad.²⁹

2. Procedure of Riddle Game

Many procedures to play riddle game, there are some procedure to play riddle game.

Procedure1:

- a. Divide the class into two groups: The QUESTION group and the ANSWER group.
- b. Give the questions to the first group and the answers to the other group.
- c. Each student in the first group is supposed to read the question he has aloud and whoever has the answer in the other group reads the answer aloud.
- d. If the question and the answer match, put the students in pairs. If they don't, continue till the right answer is found. Each student can read his part only twice. When all questions and answers are matched ask the pairs to read the riddle they have just for fun.³⁰

Procedure 2 :

- a. Tell your students that the riddle is about a person, place, animal, or thing.
- b. Write the vocabulary that you believe they don't know on the board and go over the meanings within the context of how they're used in the riddle. Do not put words on the board that will give away the answer.

³⁰*Loc Cit.* p.93.

- c. After getting the vocabulary out of the way, do the dictation line-by-line. See Dictation Patterns for two possible patterns. At this time do not let anyone give the answer.
- d. As the dictation progresses, keep reminding them not to give the answer, although you can let them say, “Teacher, I know.”
- e. When you reach the last line, dictate the first part of the line and then ask, “Who knows the answer?” if the students disagree with each other, discuss the answer. If no one knows, give the answer and consider having them do some follow-up research.³¹

3. Procedure of Teaching and Learning Speaking through Riddle Game

The Procedure of teaching and learning speaking through riddle game as follows:

A. Pre-activity

1. The teacher opens the lesson, starting it by greeting, saying the prayer, and checks the attendance list, and gives brainstorming to the students.
2. The teacher builds the background knowledge of the materials which is going to be learned.

B. Whilst-activity

After understanding the material, teachers applied learning speaking using riddle game, choose the topic, and explain about riddle game.

³¹J. Lewis, 2012, Pro Lingua's Book / Dictation Riddle, Available at: http://www.prolinguasociates.com/Dictation_Riddles/index.html.

1. Divide the class into two groups: The QUESTION group and the ANSWER group.
2. Tell your students clue that the riddle is about a person, place, animal, or thing.
3. The teacher explains the words that the teacher believes the students don't know.
4. After getting the words out of the way, the teacher dictation line-by-line. And the students repeat the vocab that the teacher dictates.
5. The students repeat aloud the vocab of the teacher dictation.
6. Give the questions to the first group and the answers to the other group.
7. Each student in the first group is supposed to read the question he has aloud and whoever has the answer in the other group reads the answer aloud.

If the question and the answer match, put the students in pairs. If they don't, continue till the right answer is found. Each student can read his part only twice. When all questions and answers are matched ask the pairs to read the riddle they have just for fun.

C. Post-activity

1. The teacher asks them whether they have some difficulties to answer the questions.
2. Teacher gives feedback about students' mistakes.

3. The teacher ends the class.³²

The researcher assumes all activities above can be used in teaching learning process in order to encourage the students to speak or improve their speaking skill.

C. Advantages of Riddle Game

According to Hapsari the advantages using Riddle game are:

- a. Riddle game can increase students' interest to learning speaking.
- b. The students are active in learning process.
- c. The students pronounce some words well.
- d. The students can increase their vocabulary using riddle game.³³

D. Disadvantages of Riddle Game

According to Hapsari the disadvantages using Riddle game are:

- a. Riddle game makes the class crowded
- b. Riddle game has limited time.
- c. Many words cannot mention in this riddle, it makes students difficult to retell the story.³⁴

CHAPTER IV

RESULT AND DISCUSSION

A. Data Analysis

There are three major data analysis: data reduction, data display, and conclusion drawing or verification.¹ The following paragraphs were the explanation about data, which was collected by the researcher.

1. Data reduction

Data reduction refers to the process of selecting, focusing, simplifying, abstracting and transforming the data that appear in written up field notes or transcriptions. In data reduction the mass of data has to be organized and meaningfully reduced or reconfigured.² In this case, the researcher selected the data derived from observation on teaching and learning process, interview to the teacher and questionnaire to the students.

a. Observation

The researcher employed an observation (see appendix 1). The observation conducted to know how is the process of teaching learning speaking through riddle game. The observation conducted in one meeting. In collecting the data, the researcher employed an observation, which became the main instrument. The observation was conducted to know how the process of teaching learning speaking through riddle game. The researcher observed the students, the teacher, the teaching learning process and the situation of classroom process. The data of observation has been identified as described in the following discussion.

¹Sugiyono, Metode Penelitian Pendidikan pendekatan kualitatif, dan R&D (Bandung: Cv Alfabeta, 2012), p. 337.

²Matthew B. Miles and A. Michael Huberman, Qualitative Data Analysis (Thousand Oaks : Sage Publications, 1994), p.12.

The researcher conducted the research on April 3rd 2018 at 07.15 to 08.15 AM in the morning. Before teaching and learning was begun teacher had prepared the materials with the theme “Things Around Me”.

a) Pre-activity (introduction)

The teacher started the class by greeting the students. Afterwards, the teacher checked the attendance list and built good relationship or made small talk with students before starting the lesson. She reviewed the last lesson and built students' knowledge about the lesson.

b) While-activity

After pre teaching, the teacher mentioned about riddle game, the rules, and gave some examples. The teacher also discussing materials related to things in the house. She asked the students about things in a house and in a room. After that, she asked the students to come in front of the class to write the things that might be available or being placed in a room. Some of the students looked shy and not confident to come in front of the class, but the teacher tried to guide the students to become braver. Then, after having several words about things in the room in the peace of paper, the students were divided into several groups and asked one student of each group to come forward to be the artist. Then the teacher called two group come forward and asked them to play riddle game by using words that related to the things in the house. After they were done the teacher told them the scores and continued by others group to play it.

c) Post-activity

The teacher asks them whether they have some difficulties to answer the questions. The last, the teacher closed the lesson by greeting.

From the data of observation above, the researcher concluded that the process of teaching and learning were not running well. Because some students were busy with their own activity, some students made noisy and some students guess the word in bahasa.

b. Questionnaire

The researcher also employed questionnaire to support the data from observation and interview. The questionnaire consisted of ten questions (see appendix 6). The first question was to know the students' interest in learning english. The second until the six questions employed to know the students problems in learning speaking. The seventh until tenth question employed to know the students problems in learning speaking through riddle game. The questionnaire was given to the whole students in Class C that consisted of 33 students.

From the result of questionnaire the researcher can conclude that the students' problem in learning speaking through riddle game was pronouncing and memorizing words.

c. Interview

To support the data of observation, the researcher had employed an interview to the teacher to investigate the problems faced by the teacher during teaching speaking. There were ten questions that the researcher asked to the teacher (see appendix 3).

The first point of interview was to know the teacher's problems during in teaching speaking that consist of three questions. The second point of interview was the students' speaking that consists of one question. The third point of interview was to know the students' participation during the process while learning in the class according to the teacher judgement. The fourth point of interview was to know the teacher opinion about riddle game. From the result of interview the researcher can conclude that the teacher had difficulty in handling the class because some of the students were busy with their own activity like chatting and it made the class noisy.

2. Data Display

Data display is second component or level in Miles and Huberman model of qualitative data analysis. A display can be an extended piece of text or a diagram, graph, chart, table or matrix that provides a new way of arranging thinking about the more textually embedded data. At the display stage, additional, higher order categories or themes may emerge from the data that go beyond those first discovered during the initial process of data reduction.³ In this case, the analysis done based on data collected by each instrument.

a. Observation

Based on the data showing in the data reduction, in this part the data are going to be identified and displayed from a meeting. The observation consists of three points.

The first point was while activity that consisted of nine points of observation that were investigated whether the application of the eleven steps applied by the teacher or not. After the researcher observed the process of teaching and learning in the class, the researcher found out that the teacher applied all of the steps or procedures of riddle game. According to Wright et.al, there are twelve steps in teaching and learning speaking through riddle game. Based on the nine steps in teaching and learning speaking through riddle game the researcher noted the while activity, the explanation of the application of those sixteen steps, can be seen in the table below :

Conclusion drawing involves stepping back to consider what the analyzed data mean and to assess their implication for the questions at hand. Verification is linked to conclusion drawing, entails revising the data as many times as necessary to cross-check or verifies these emergent conclusions. Verification refers to the process which is able to explain the answer of research questions and research objectives.⁴In this step, the researcher drew the conclusion and verify the answer of research question that was done in displaying the data by comparing the observation data, interview data, and questionnaire data.

In this part, the data explained in data display are going to be discussed deeply in order to make a finding of the research. In this part, the discussion and findings are divided into three parts:

As Allah said on surah Ali Imran/3 : 46

وَيُكَلِّمُ النَّاسَ فِي الْمَهْدِ وَكَهْلًا وَمِنَ الصَّالِحِينَ (آل عمران: ٤٦)

“And he will speak to the people in the cradle and adulthood, and will be one of the righteous.”⁵ It can be said where Allah wills to protect a person from accusation and he makes the mute tongue of baby speak.

After the researcher analyzed and found out the finding of the research, hopefully the researcher gave contribution of the research to better way. Learning speaking should be supported by an interesting lecture style by teacher, so the students were interested to speaking practice. Besides, someone should have good motivation. Moreover, Riddle Game that has been applied by the teacher is one of the ways that can be used in learning speaking because using riddle can help the students for improving their speaking ability.
