

Ternary diagram of the mixing model results from the polytopic vector analysis

The signature for each end member is displayed at each corner of the ternary plot. Red dots represent birds recovered from the UK and blue dots represent birds recovered from Canada. The signature from the liver was used for birds where specific tissue types were removed (S-22, S-23 and S-24).