Introduction

The blog is design to provide information about Islam to the readers. In this blog we provide educational information such as articles and videos. Our reader can contribute their ideas to improve the content of the blog. We will acknowledge the author of the article if we use his article in our blog. Through this blog we hope that we will be able to provide solution regarding the problem that the society faced.

Our blog consists with translator, calendar, Google search and public comment. This blog can provide an income for us by giving space for advertising. Half of the profit will distribute to orphanages as a charity while the rest will be using for our blog maintenance cost.

Islam is a beautiful and complete religion in a sense that Islam teachings encompass everything that we need to know, to do, to avoid and to obey in this life. Allah rewards us if we do exactly what we have been told in the Quran and punish us if we do things that are against in Islam. Every Muslim should depend on Al Quran and As Sunnah because these two things that Allah has left for us are to guide Muslim on a correct path not only for this world, but also for sake of Hereafter. Every rules and regulations that has been said in the Quran and Sunah is not for nothing, but it meant something for us as a Muslims to follow and implement those rules and regulations so that we can achieve happiness in this world and most important thing, we can get the blessing from our Creator.
