10. ISLAMIC MARRIAGE PRINCIPLE

Maznah Ahmad and Norsemah Salleh

ABSTRACT

This chapter represents the development of Islamic edutainment on Islamic marriage principle. The continuation of a human race by the reproduction of offspring is the result of a marriage. In Islamic perspective, marriage is important in the sense that it provides means for a formation of a healthy family atmosphere where both the husband and wife can live within mutual love and understanding, conducive to an Islamic environment for their children to grow healthily. In this book chapter, we presented a development of a multimedia application (CD title) related to a Muslim marriage. There are several important issues that facing the Muslim communities nowadays in relation to their marriage. Among the major problems reported are the issue of divorce, nusyuz, cursing, abusing and many more. The application contains important information for Muslim brothers and sisters before they get married so that they understand the pillars of marriage, the cursing marriage and so on. It also includes the rights of wife on her husband and the right of a husband on his wife to achieve a happy marriage and blessing from Allah.

10.1 Introduction

Muslims communities nowadays are reported to facing a lot of problem regarding their marriage. Some of the important issues are divorce, wife's rights and child abuse. The fundamental problem that causes these phenomena is lack of knowledge and understanding of Islamic principles in marriage. Due to the lack of knowledge, there are many problem exist in our society nowadays such as rape, incest, divorce, ignored children and many other. Therefore, to solve these problems we need to refer back to the learning of the basic principle of Islamic marriage.
